After a record-breaking season in 2014, Georgia looks to find a new offensive rhythm as it adjusts to a revamped coaching staff on that side of the ball. The Bulldog defense aims to fill gaps left by key contributors and continue improvements from the previous season. Georgia is returning 16 starters – seven on offense, six on defense and three on special teams.

QUARTERBACKS

Georgia went into the 2014 season knowing it would only get one season from fifth-year quarterback Hutson Mason who finished the season ranked second in the SEC in passing efficiency. Mason was 188-of-277 for 2,168 yards, 21 touchdowns and only four interceptions.

Now the Bulldogs, behind new offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Brian Schottenheimer, will have options with the return of two contributors from the previous season, Brice Ramsey (6-3, 216, RSo.) and Faton Bauta (6-3, 218, Jr.). Ramsey, the only returning letterman in the position group, was the first QB off the bench throughout Georgia's 2014 campaign and finished 24-of-39 for 333 yards and three touchdowns in eight appearances. Bauta saw action in three games throughout 2014, tallying 48 passing yards on 4-of-5 attempts and adding 17 yards and two touchdowns on the ground.

The Bulldogs also have two redshirt freshmen QBs in Jacob Park (6-4, 202, So.) and Sam Vaughn (6-3, 188, So.). Park directed the scout team offense in his redshirt year and will look for action in spring football, as well.

RUNNING BACKS

Gone is All-SEC running back Todd Gurley who finished his three-year career with 3,285 yards rushing and 36 touchdowns to finish as the fourth-leading rusher in Georgia history. However, the Bulldogs will be glad to watch another All-SEC running back, Nick Chubb (5-10, 228, So.), and four additional lettermen return to the field this spring.

With Gurley missing the majority of the 2014 season due to a suspension and injury, Chubb took a large amount of the offensive snaps in his first season, playing in all 13 games and starting the final eight. He finished the season with 1,547 yards and 14 rushing touchdowns, trailing only Herschel Walker for the most yards rushing by a freshman.

Chubb will be joined by a healthy Keith Marshall (5-11, 215, Sr.) who used 2014 as a redshirt year. Marshall has struggled with leg injuries the past two seasons. He contributed in the first five games of 2013 before tearing his ACL at Tennessee in early October. The start of the 2014 season allowed him to see only limited action before leg injuries sidelined him for the remainder of the year.

Sony Michel (5-11, 208, So.) and Brendan Douglas (5-11, 213, Jr.) will provide added depth for Georgia on the ground. Michel tallied 553 all-purpose yards and six touchdowns, one through the air and five on the ground. Douglas ran for 230 yards and two touchdowns during his sophomore campaign.

The Bulldogs will return two lettermen at the fullback position, Quayvon Hicks (6-2, 257, Sr.) and Christian Payne (6-1, 222, So.). In 2014, Hicks contributed in all 13 games, including 85 yards and two scores on nine attempts.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Georgia must replace its two leading receivers from the past two seasons in Michael Bennett and Chris Conley. However, Malcolm Mitchell (6-1, 195, Sr.) elected to stay a final year and will be aided by a deep receiving corps, which will only improve when the 2015 signees arrive in the fall.

Mitchell was Georgia's third-leading receiver with 31 catches for 248 yards and three scores. In his career, Mitchell has more than 1,400 yards receiving and 11 touchdowns. The Bulldogs will also have help from Justin Scott-Wesley (5-11, 210, Jr.), Reggie Davis (6-0, 170, Jr.), Kenneth Towns (6-3, 201, RSo.), Isaiah McKenzie (5-8, 164, So.) and Blake Tibbs (6-2, 180, Jr.).

Scott-Wesley has been a go-to target on key scoring plays and will look to make a healthy comeback this spring. He also suffered an ACL tear in 2013 and dealt with lingering injuries through most of 2014. In his career, he has 28 receptions for 498 yards and four touchdowns.

TIGHT ENDS

Jeb Blazevich (6-5, 232, So.) emerged as a strong contributor for the Bulldogs during his freshman campaign in 2014. He tallied 18 catches for 269 yards and two scores, with an average of nearly 15 yards a reception. His most memorable catch may have come in the Vanderbilt game when Gurley lined up in the shotgun and threw a 50-yard-pass, Georgia's longest of the season, to Blazevich.

Jay Rome (6-6, 248, Sr.), who has 310 career receiving yards, will also be returning for the Bulldogs. In addition, Georgia will take a look at Jared Chapple (6-4, 227, Jr.), Jordan Davis (6-4, 230, RSo.) and Joseph Ledbetter (6-4, 235, Jr.). Davis played in six games in 2014 and registered three catches for 66 yards. Jackson Harris (6-5, 250, Fr.) enrolled in January and will be looking to stake a claim for playing time.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

New offensive line coach Rob Sale will inherit a line of veterans this spring as only one starter was lost from the 2014 squad. That lineman, who was key to Georgia's offensive success, was center David Andrews. With Andrews' departure, a host of young lineman will work to gain a greater role this spring.

The Bulldogs will return both starting tackles, John Theus (6-6, 313, Sr.) and Kolton Houston (6-5, 287, Sr.), and both starting guards, Greg Pyke (6-6, 321, Jr.) and Brandon Kublanow (6-3, 294, Jr.). Three additional lettermen – Hunter Long (6-4, 302, Sr.), Isaiah Wynn (6-2, 283, So.) and Dyshon Sims (6-4, 302, So.) – will also look to contribute in Georgia's upcoming season and claim the spot at center.

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

The defensive line will have some holes to fill this spring with the absence of Ray Drew, Mike Thornton and Toby Johnson. However, several key playmakers are back.

Both returning ends, Sterling Bailey (6-3, 280, Sr.) and Josh Dawson (6-4, 266, Sr.), played in every game of 2014 and set themselves up for big senior campaigns. Bailey tallied 27 tackles last season. Dawson had 17 tackles, including a sack and four for loss. His finest moment came in the form of a fumble recovery for a touchdown in the Tennessee game.

The Bulldogs will also see the return of nose guard Chris Mayes (6-4, 317, Sr.) and tackle John Atkins (6-4, 299, RSo.). Atkins recorded nine tackles and a pass breakup in his 10 appearances last year, while Mayes added seven and one for a loss in his eight outings.

The line will see a boost with the addition of young Bulldogs in 2015. Two of those will participate in spring drills. Michael Barnett (6-4, 255, Fr.) is a four-star defensive end and Jonathan Ledbetter (6-4, 265, Fr.) is a four-star defensive tackle, both of whom arrived in January as early enrollees.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

The Bulldogs will enjoy a 100 percent return rate of lettermen at the outside linebacker position. Jordan Jenkins (6-3, 252, Sr.) had 70 tackles, five sacks, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries in 2014 as a mainstay on the Bulldog defense. Leonard Floyd (6-4, 230, Jr.) proved to be a pass-rushing threat with a team-best six sacks among his 55 stops. He also had 17 quarterback hurries and three forced fumbles.

Lorenzo Carter (6-6, 237, So.) quickly emerged as a top player for the Bulldogs with his 41 tackles, including seven for a loss and 4.5 sacks. Davin Bellamy (6-5, 240, RSo.) and James DeLoach (6-3, 276, Sr.) also added strength to Georgia's defensive attack during the 2014 season.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Georgia lost two of its defensive centerpieces in Amarlo Herrera and Ramik Wilson. They led the team in tackles and received All-SEC honors. Also, special teams standout Kosta Vavlas has graduated. Therefore, the returning lettermen, along with a host of early enrollees, will look to impress the coaches in hopes of a starting nod come fall.

Tim Kimbrough (6-0, 230, Jr.) is the only returner to have played in all 13 games last season. He led the backups with 32 tackles. Reggie Carter (6-1, 231, Jr.) and Ryne Rankin (6-1, 215, Jr.) each saw time in 12 games. Carter tallied 28 stops and Rankin, who was a mainstay on special teams for Georgia, had six.

Three new Bulldogs will also try to stake their claim in their first semester on campus. Natrez Patrick (6-3, 255, Fr.), the youngest of the group, was a four-star recruit coming out of high school. Chuks Amaechi (6-3, 220, Jr.) is a junior college transfer while Jake Ganus (6-2, 215, Sr.) spent his first three seasons at UAB.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Jeremy Pruitt's backfield saw considerable improvement in his first season as defensive coordinator. The Bulldogs, who had just seven interceptions in 2013, surpassed that number by the sixth game of 2014 and tallied 16 by the end of the season.

All-SEC Second Teamer Damian Swann has completed his career so opportunities exist for the next generation. Behind Swann, Quincy Mauger (6-0, 199, Jr.) had 51 tackles and co-led the team with four interceptions, fourth-best in the conference. Also returning in the safety spot is Dominick Sanders (6-0, 187, So.) and Tramel Terry (6-0, 197, RSo.). Sanders had a breakout freshman season, playing in all 13 games and recording 34 stops, three interceptions and a 54-yard fumble recovery. Terry had six stops and an interception in 2014.

Devin Bowman (6-0, 179, Sr.), Malkom Parrish (5-10, 194, So.) and Aaron Davis (6-1, 189, RSo.) all return for Georgia in the cornerback position. Both in their first season on the field, Davis had 40 tackles, an interception and a fumble recovery, and Parrish added another 17 stops. Bowman finished the year with 19 tackles and 63-yard interception returned for a touchdown.

Georgia rounds out its class of early enrollees with Jonathan Abram (6-1, 202, Fr.) and Jarvis Wilson (6-2, 197, Fr.). Both will work into the rotation in spring drills.

SPECIALISTS

The Bulldogs return three key starters on special teams this spring, all of whom have contributed for several years. Marshall Morgan (6-3, 200, Sr.) finished the season hitting 16-of-21 field goals and 67-of-68 extra points. Morgan also handled kickoffs and averaged 61 yards a kick with 31 of his kickoffs resulting in touchbacks.

Snapping to him is lettermen Nathan Theus (6-3, 236, Sr.). Although he controlled the starting spot in 2014, Trent Frix (6-0, 209, Jr.), Matthew Herzwurm (6-0, 225, RSo.) and John Courson (5-11, 189, So.) will look to work themselves into the mix during spring drills.

Thanks to the Bulldog's high-octane offense, Collin Barber (6-2, 208, Jr.) and then senior Adam Erickson were not called on to punt often. Although they split time at the position, Barber accounted for 34 of Georgia's 43 punts in 2014 and averaged 39.3 yards per punt. Thirteen of his punts resulted in fair catches, and five of them stretched beyond 50 yards.

Isaiah McKenzie established himself as Georgia's lead return man during his first year in red and black. He became the first Bulldog in the modern era to return both a punt and a kickoff for touchdowns in the same game, which he did against Kentucky for 59 and 90 yards, respectively. On the year, he averaged 12.1 yards on 19 punt returns, including two touchdowns, and 28 yards a return on 11 kickoffs. Reggie Davis also took 12 punts for a nearly 8-yard return average and three kickoffs for 16.3 yards a return.

First Up In The SEC

Vanderbilt served as Georgia's first SEC opponent five times in the 1950s, including the season-opening opponent in 1952 and 1956. This year, the Bulldogs open their SEC schedule against the Commodores in Nashville, Tenn., on Sept. 12.

Also, the Bulldogs will be facing Alabama for the first time in the regular season since the Tide came to Athens in 2008. Georgia last played Alabama for the 2012 SEC Championship in Atlanta.

Turnover Margin

In 2014, Georgia ranked fourth nationally in Turnover Margin at +16 or 1.23 per game. This was the fourth best in school history. Georgia's 1980 national championship team led the country. That team finished +23 during the regular season (2.09 per game) and that still ranks fifth best in NCAA history.

Prior to 2014, Georgia's top turnover margin for a season under Mark Richt was +11 (2003, 2005, 2012) and per game is 0.85 (2005).

2015 Bulldog Spring Storylines

New Leader On Offense

Georgia led the SEC and was eighth nationally in Scoring at 41.3 points a game in 2014. With the departure of offensive coordinator Mike Bobo to become the head coach at Colorado State, the Bulldogs hired Brian Schottenheimer from the St. Louis Rams in January 2015 to lead the offense. Bobo took over the Bulldogs' play calling at the end of the 2006 season and was named the offensive coordinator before the 2007 season.

Veteran Offensive Line, New Coach

The Bulldogs return four starters on the offensive line from a squad that won 10 games and averaged 257.8 rushing yards per game, which led the SEC and ranked 11th nationally last year. LT John Theus, LG Brandon Kublanow, RG Greg Pyke and RT Kolton Houston are all expected in Georgia's lineup after only three-year starting C David Andrews graduated. Isaiah Wynn and Dyshon Sims will also provide depth after earning playing time last year as true freshmen. The unit will be led by new offensive line coach Rob Sale. Sale replaces Will Friend who joined Mike Bobo at Colorado State. Friend is now the offensive coordinator for the Rams.

Rushing Attack

The Bulldogs finished with 38 rushing touchdowns last season, which ranked second in school history. The 1971 team holds the mark with 39. Georgia returns four out of its top five rushers from 2014, including rising sophomore Nick Chubb. Chubb started the Bulldogs' last eight games and finished with 1,547 yards and 14 rushing touchdowns to help Georgia tally 70 touchdowns (10th nationally). Chubb was named a Freshman All-American and the consensus SEC Freshman of the Year. In addition, 2015 sophomore Sony Michel got his first career start alongside Chubb in the Belk Bowl win and completed the year with 410 yards and five scores.

Replacing Tackling Machines

There have been two constants at the top of the defensive statistic pages over the last two seasons in ILBs Ramik Wilson and Amarlo Herrera. The 2014 seniors combined for 470 tackles over the last two years, including Wilson's SEC-leading 133 stops in 2013 and Herrera's team-leading 115 tackles last year. Reggie Carter and Tim Kimbrough were backups for the aforementioned pair. Starting OLBs Jordan Jenkins (70 tackles, 9.5 tackles for loss, five sacks) and Leonard Floyd (55 tackles, 8.5 tackles for loss, six sacks) ranked third and fifth in the statistics last year and are also slated to return.

Year Two Under Pruitt

The 2015 season will mark the second season under defensive coordinator Jeremy Pruitt. The Bulldogs ranked fifth in the SEC in Scoring Defense at 20.7 points a game. Georgia finished with a +16 turnover margin and that ranked fourth nationally. Pruitt will have six starters back from a defense that posted two shutouts and held #23 Missouri and #9 Auburn to a combined seven points.

Non-Conference Success

Under the direction of Mark Richt, Georgia owns a 56-11 record against teams from outside the Southeastern Conference. They are 39-2 at home since 2001. The Bulldogs completed 2014 with a 4-1 non-conference mark, including their 37-14 win over #20 Louisville in the Belk Bowl.

In 2015, three of Georgia's four regular season non-conference foes will come to Sanford Stadium. The slate features Louisiana-Monroe at home for the season opener (Sept. 5), Southern University (Sept. 26) and Georgia Southern (Nov. 21) in Athens and a meeting with Georgia Tech in Atlanta in the regular season finale on Nov. 28.

The Bulldogs are 3-0 all-time versus Louisiana-Monroe (formerly Northeast Louisiana) but have never opened up against the Warhawks. Georgia has never faced Southern University out of Baton Rouge and has a 5-0 edge all-time against Georgia Southern, including a 45-14 win over the Eagles last time the teams met in 2012. The Bulldogs have won 12 out of the last 14 games over Georgia Tech and hold a 64-38-5 edge in the overall series.

Dogs In The Super Bowl

For the 14th consecutive year, Georgia had at least one former player in the Super Bowl. The Bulldogs and LSU have the SEC's longest streak of a former player being on a team that advanced to the Super Bowl. This year it was Demarcus Dobbs for the NFC champion Seattle Seahawks. Additionally, former Bulldog Travis Jones is on the Seahawks staff as an assistant coach. Dobbs has been in the league four years and been in two Super Bowls, including with the San Francisco 49ers in the 2014 Super Bowl. The last Bulldog to be on a Super Bowl championship team was Chris Clemons in 2014. Georgia is the only school to have produced three Super Bowl MVPs: S Jake Scott, Miami, SB VII; RB Terrell Davis, Denver, SB XXXII; WR Hines Ward, Pittsburgh, SB XL.

Potential For High-Power Offense Again

Seven starters return in 2015 off of the record-setting offense from 2014. For the 10th time in school history and first time since 2002, Georgia led the SEC in Scoring Offense. The Bulldogs tallied 537 points last year and averaged 41.3 points per game, both school records. Georgia finished eighth nationally in Scoring Offense. The Bulldogs return the SEC leader in scoring touchdowns in sophomore TB Nick Chubb along with the SEC leader in overall scoring in senior PK Marshall Morgan. This year, Georgia will debut a new offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in Brian Schottenheimer who took over for Mike Bobo, who took the head coaching job at Colorado State.

Backfield Back For Bulldogs

The Bulldogs led the SEC and ranked 11th nationally with an average of 257.8 rushing yards a game in 2015. Georgia established the highest average since the 1987 team (274.5). Also, the Bulldogs set a school record pace by averaging 6.04 yards a rush. The former record was 5.64 by the 1992 squad.

Georgia's current depth at tailback includes true rising sophomores in Nick Chubb and Sony Michel and rising junior Brendan Douglas.

With the absence of Todd Gurley, Chubb started the final eight games for the Bulldogs and earned national awards with performances during wins at Arkansas, #23 Missouri and Arkansas and against #9 Auburn, Charleston Southern and #20 Louisville in the Belk Bowl. He became the 12th Bulldog in school history to reach 1,000 yards rushing in a season and finished second in the SEC in both yards/game (119.0) and total rushing yards (1,547).

Chubb finished the season going for more than 100 yards in eight consecutive games. He is the first Bulldog to accomplish that feat since Herschel Walker in 1982. For the year, Chubb led the SEC in scoring lead (TDs) averaging 7.4 points a game (14 rushing, two receiving). At 1,547 rushing yards on the year, Chubb tied for fourth best in school history with Garrison Hearst (1992).

Twice Chubb had 200-yard rushing games in his first season. He ran 30 times for a career-high 202 yards and a career-high two touchdowns in the win at Arkansas on Oct. 18. Chubb is the first true freshman to reach 200 yards rushing for the Bulldogs since Rodney Hampton in 1987. During the win over #20 Louisville in the Belk Bowl, he ran for an SEC bowl record 266 yards and two touchdowns and was named the game's MVP. Chubb's first career start was also memorable one as he helped lead the Bulldogs to a 34-0 win at #23 Missouri on Oct. 11. The Cedartown, Ga., native had a career-high 38 carries for 143 yards and one touchdown. This was the most carries for a Bulldog since Verron Haynes carried the ball 39 times against Georgia Tech in 2001 and the second-most carries ever by a freshman (43, Herschel Walker, 1980 vs. South Carolina).

Michel contributed a 6.4 average totaling 410 yards and five touchdowns in eight games with one start. Douglas and FB Quayvon Hicks also finished with 315 yards and four touchdowns last year and will return. Keith Marshall should also round out the Bulldog running backs. Marshall was limited to 12 carries in the first three games as he was recovering from a knee injury. He looks to return to the healthy form he displayed as a freshman in 2012 when he averaged 6.5 yards a carry, registering 759 yards and eight scores.

Veteran Line Returns

For the first time since 2000, Georgia went an entire season with the same offensive line. Four of those five Bulldogs return in 2015. The unit featured sophomore Brandon Kublanow at LG, redshirt sophomore Greg Pyke at RG, junior John Theus at LT, senior David Andrews at C and senior Kolton Houston at RT. Andrews was the lone member of last year's line that graduated.

Houston returns in 2015 after being granted a sixth year from the NCAA. He has been a member of the program since 2010 but saw his first action since 2013. Theus is the starting LT after starting 22 games at RT during his first two seasons.

The Bulldogs tallied an SEC-best 38 rushing touchdowns. That was one shy of the school record set by the 1971 Georgia team. UGA also led the SEC in Rushing Offense with 3,365 yards for an average of 258.8 yards per game. Also, Georgia's quarterbacks finished with a completion percentage of 67.4, which established a school record for a season.

Quarterback Battle To Watch

All eyes will be on the quarterbacks this spring after senior Hutson Mason graduated and offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Mike Bobo left to be the head coach at Colorado State. Brian Schottenheimer was hired in January from the St. Louis Rams to take over Georgia's offense and coach the quarterbacks.

The quarterback corps include redshirt sophomore Brice Ramsey, junior Faton Bauta and redshirt freshman Jacob Park. Ramsey served as the primary backup last year, appearing in eight games and was 24-of-39 for 333 for three touchdowns and two interceptions. He played the entire second half in leading Georgia to a victory over #20 Louisville in the Belk Bowl after Mason was sidelined. Bauta has appeared in six career games over the last two seasons. He is 4-for-5 for 48 yards with no touchdowns or interceptions. Plus, Bauta has 10 rushes for 46 yards and two scores. Park ran the scout team all of last year. He provides the Bulldogs with a different look under center with his mobility.

This will be the second straight year Georgia will have a new starting quarterback under center. Mason took over in 2014 following Aaron Murray, who became an SEC record holder as a starter from 2010-13. Murray had four straight seasons of 3,000 yards passing.

Looking For Leaders At Receiver

Georgia's top returning options at receiver include senior Malcolm Mitchell, along with sophomore tight end Jeb Blazevich and sophomore tailback Nick Chubb. The senior duo of Michael Bennett and Chris Conley combined for 73 catches, 1,061 yards and 12 touchdowns in 2014. Mitchell aims for a full season after appearing in nine games with three starts last year. He missed almost all of 2013 with a knee injury. Last season, Mitchell had 31 catches for 248 yards and three touchdowns.

The coming season will provide an opportunity for a bigger roll for sophomore Isaiah McKenzie, junior Reggie Davis and junior Kenneth Towns, who all had six catches each last year. Junior Blake Tibbs, senior Justin Scott-Wesley and sophomore Shakenneth Williams will also be in the mix at receiver this year. Along with Blazevich, Georgia is well-stocked at tight end with the return of senior Jay Rome and redshirt sophomore Jordan Davis.

Year Two Of The Pruitt Era

Georgia enters its second season under the direction of defensive coordinator/secondary coach Jeremy Pruitt. The Bulldogs led the SEC and finished fourth nationally with a +16 turnover margin. That figure was the fourth best in school history and best since 1982. This was a dramatic improvement from 2013 when the Bulldogs finished the year with a -7 turnover margin. Overall, Georgia improved five spots to finish No. 5 in the SEC in Scoring Defense allowing 20.7 points per game. The Bulldogs scored 110 points off 29 turnovers in 2014. The defense scored four of those touchdowns and three of the four Georgia defenders who scored return (senior DE Josh Dawson - fumble recovery vs. Tennessee; senior DB Devin Bowman - 63-yard interception return vs. Vanderbilt; sophomore DB Dominick Sanders - 54-yard fumble return vs. Arkansas; 2014 senior STAR Damian Swann - 99-yard fumble return).

2014 Review Of The Defense

The Bulldogs allowed 20.7 points/game. Georgia posted a pair of shutouts (Troy, @ #23 Missouri), held Missouri out of the Red Zone and kept then #9 Auburn to seven points and one trip to the Red Zone (drive ended in an interception). Missouri, the SEC East champion, was shut out by the Bulldogs in Columbia. This was the first time the Tigers had been shut out since 2002.

Georgia held Auburn to a season-low seven points (which came on its opening drive), and it was the fewest overall in a game during Gus Malzahn's two years at the helm. Only four teams, including Auburn, had scored at least 20 points in every game since the 2013 season. Coming into the game, the Tigers were third in the SEC and 13th nationally at 38.7 points per game.

Georgia's defensive staff underwent a complete overhaul following the 2013 season. This marked the first time since 1964 (Vince Dooley's first year) that the Bulldogs have an entirely new defensive staff.

The Bulldog defense allowed only 19 points on 13 Georgia turnovers. For example, Kentucky recovered a fumble at the Georgia 23 yard line. The Wildcats ran eight plays and gained a total of two yards before having to settle for a field goal. Vanderbilt grabbed an interception at the Georgia 24. The Commodores ran six plays for seven yards and had to settle for a field goal. The lone touchdown scored off a turnover came against Charleston Southern in the fourth quarter with Georgia leading 55-3. The Yellow Jackets managed to scored seven points off a pair of Bulldog fumbles on the Georgia Tech 1-yard line and an interception in overtime. Georgia responded to one of the two fumble recoveries with a blocked field goal. In the Belk Bowl, #20 Louisville tallied an interception and recovered a fumble but failed to turn the pair of turnovers into any points.

Dog Duo Delays NFL Plans

Senior OLB Jordan Jenkins and junior OLB Leonard Floyd made the decision to return to the Bulldogs instead of bolting for the NFL. These decisions immediately bolstered Georgia's backbone on the defense for the coming years. Both were considered early round picks, but will now serve as the Bulldogs leading linebackers. Jenkins is the top returning tackler with 70 tackles, including 9.5 tackles for loss and five sacks, and finished with a team-high 24 quarterback pressures. Jenkins also had two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries in 2014. Floyd led the team with six sacks and finished fifth on the club with 55 stops, including 8.5 tackles for loss, and had 17 pressures and three caused fumble.

Sophomore OLB Lorenzo Carter is among the other linebackers to watch. Playing in 13 games and starting five, Carter had 41 tackles with seven tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks.

Secondary Creating Turnovers

Georgia's secondary accounted for 15 of the team's 16 interceptions, six forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries last year. The Bulldogs return a majority of their secondary, losing only STAR Damian Swann and S Corey Moore. Junior Quincy Mauger tied for the team lead in interceptions with four while sophomore DB Dominick Sanders had three picks in his first season. Along with Mauger and Sanders, Georgia's returning secondary include senior Devin Bowman, redshirt sophomore Aaron Davis and sophomore Malkom Parrish.

Early Enrollees Add Depth To Defense

Six of the eight early enrollees for the Bulldogs will play on the defensive side of the ball. The early enrollees are Jonathan Ledbetter (Tucker), Natrez Patrick (Mays), Michael Barnett (Woodland - S.C.), Chuks Amaechi (Arizona Western College), Jarvis Wilson (Tupelo), Johnathan Abram (East Marion - Miss.) and Jake Ganus (UAB). Ganus comes to the Bulldogs as a senior transfer after leading the Blazers with 70 tackles, including 16.5 tackles for loss and six sacks, in 2014. Ganus tallied 156 stops playing a prominent role on the UAB defense as a freshman and sophomore in 2012-13.

The Bulldogs' Front

A position to keep an eye on would be the defensive front. Georgia lost captain Mike Thornton and Ray Drew, along with Toby Johnson, from last year's squad. Senior Sterling Bailey returns to the lineup after recording 27 tackles last year and is the only veteran with extensive experience. He has played in 29 games with 10 starts. In addition, senior Josh Dawson has appeared in 38 games with five starts and finished last year with 17 stops.

Morgan Moving Up Record Books

Junior PK Marshall Morgan along with junior P Collin Barber have served as the primary specialists since 2012. Morgan has a chance to end his career as Georgia's all-time scoring leader.

Currently, Morgan ranks fourth in school history with 315 points. The Georgia record is 412 set by Blair Walsh (seventh nationally all-time). Morgan (177) is closing in on the Bulldog career PAT mark held by Walsh (184).

Morgan led the SEC in 2014 for scoring with 115 points. He is the 11th Bulldog to claim an SEC scoring title (first since Brandon Coutu, 2005). Morgan set the SEC record at #24 South Carolina last year, hitting his 19th and 20th straight FGs. In the Georgia Tech game, he had an eventful performance featuring six points, a 28-yard run on a fake field goal attempt, a tackle on a kickoff and the first kick of his career blocked. Morgan also set school records in PATs and PATs attempted in 2014, going 67-for-68. He helped Georgia set a school record with 537 points last year. That mark, along with a 41.3 average for the Bulldogs, led the SEC.

In his career, Barber has punted 123 times for 5,103 yards (average of 41.5). Twice in 2014, the Bulldogs did not have to punt in a game (@ Kentucky, vs. Charleston Southern).

Aiming For Better Returns

Georgia averaged 22.4 yards on kickoff returns and 10.5 on punt returns in 2014. Rising sophomore Isaiah McKenzie made history by becoming only the 12th player in NCAA FBS history to have a punt return and a kickoff return for a touchdown in the same game in the win at Kentucky. He finished tied for second nationally with three return touchdowns last season. McKenzie went 90 yards on the opening kickoff to give the Bulldogs an early 7-0 edge against Kentucky. He was the first Bulldog to start a game with a KOR TD since 1988 when Tim Worley raced 93 yards against Ole Miss. Then in the third quarter versus UK, he added a 59-yard punt return for a touchdown, marking his second of the year. In the win over Arkansas, McKenzie had three KOR for 93 yards, including a 48-yarder.

In the punt return game, sophomore Reggie Davis and McKenzie combined for 325 yards on 31 returns and two touchdowns last season. Also, McKenzie had a 52-yarder for a touchdown against Troy. In the SEC, McKenzie ranked among the top five for most of the season in both categories. He finished at a 28.1 average in kickoff returns and a 12.1 average in punt returns.

First-Time Starters In 2014

The Bulldogs had 15 first-time starters in 2014. Georgia had six first-timers in the season opener with #16 Clemson. Against #24 South Carolina, senior DT Toby Johnson and freshman receiver Isaiah McKenzie got the first starting nod of their careers. During the 66-0 victory over Troy, freshman TE Jeb Blazevich started the first game of his career. Freshman Isaiah Wynn lined up at TE and sophomore Reggie Davis got the nod at receiver versus the Vols. Freshman TB Nick Chubb got his first career start during the win at #23 Missouri. Freshman OLB Lorenzo Carter started for the first time at Kentucky and responded with a career-high nine tackles, including 2.5 sacks. CB Malkom Parrish got the starting nod against Charleston Southern. Versus #15 Georgia Tech, Christian Payne started at FB.

The True Freshman Experience

A total of 13 true freshmen played in 2015, and 32 Bulldogs earned a snap for the first time in their careers last season.

The most true freshmen to play in a season opener during the Mark Richt era was 13 coming back in 2012. In last year's opener, nine played in the 45-21 win over #16 Clemson. Fourteen true freshman played overall in 2013.

No. 16 CLEMSON

Aug. 30, 2014 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. -- The No. 12 Georgia Bulldogs handed the No. 16 Clemson Tigers a 45-21 loss in front of an electric Sanford Stadium crowd of 92,746 and a nationally televised ESPN audience on Saturday, Aug. 30 in Athens, Ga. Georgia improves to 91-27-3 in season openers including 11-3 under Mark Richt. The Bulldogs now lead the series over Clemson 42-18-4. Georgia is 3-2 against the Tigers when both are ranked in the top 20. The Bulldogs are now 53-10 against non-conference teams including 37-1 at home under Richt.

Todd Gurley had a record-setting performance for the Bulldogs, totaling 293 all-purpose yards and four touchdowns to lead the team offensively. Gurley rushed for 198 net yards, his 14th 100-yard rushing game. He also became only the second Bulldog with a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown (Gurley also had one vs. Buffalo in 2012 and Brandon Boykin had three in his career).

Hutson Mason led the passing attack for Georgia, going 18-for-26 for 131 yards. He also rushed for a touchdown. Michael Bennett was his top target, collecting 60 yards on five catches. Making their debuts for the Bulldogs, Sony Michel finished with 33 yards on the ground, while Nick Chubb added 70 yards and a touchdown on four carries.

Clemson took a 7-0 lead on the first drive of the game, going 70 yards and converting on fourth down for the score.

The Bulldogs answered on their second drive of the game. Georgia used a balanced attack through the air and on the ground to go 57 yards in only 1:13. Gurley rushed 23 yards to the end zone for the touchdown. Marshall Morgan's extra point kick was good, tying the game at 7-7.

After a smothering Georgia defensive stand that included a sack of Clemson quarterback Cole Stoudt, the Bulldogs took a 14-7 lead with less than a minute to play in the first quarter on a two-yard touchdown run by Mason.

Clemson responded with a pair of touchdowns that allowed it to take a 21-14 lead. The first score came on a 30-yard pass from Deshaun Watson to Charone Peake with 13:52 left in the first half. The Tigers took the lead on a one-yard touchdown run by C.J. Davidson.

After taking the lead, the Tigers kicked off to Gurley who was back deep for the Bulldogs. Gurley then tied a school-record with a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown that made it a 21-21 game.

Clemson looked to take the lead with 48 seconds left in the second quarter, attempting a 34-yard field goal that sailed wide left. The teams headed into the locker room tied at halftime.

Georgia opened the second half with a 10-play, 57-yard drive that was capped off by a 27-yard field goal by Morgan. The Bulldogs took a 24-21 lead, and that score remained throughout the third quarter.

In Georgia's first drive of the fourth quarter, Gurley rushed for 58 of the 82 yards during the drive. Gurley capped off the drive with an 18-yard rush up the middle that gave Georgia a 10-point lead at 31-21 with just over 10 minutes left in the game.

The Georgia defense continued to stymie the Tiger offense, as the ensuing possession saw Clemson post negative yardage, forcing it to punt and giving Georgia the ball at the 47.

Riding the momentum, Chubb took the first play of the drive 47 yards into the end zone for his first career touchdown that put Georgia up 38-21.

After another three-and-out by the Tigers, Gurley took the handoff from Mason and rushed 51 yards for his fourth touchdown of the game.

The Bulldogs maintained possession for the final 5:24 of the game to seal the 45-21 win.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"It was a great second half. 21-21 in the first half and both teams were flying around, wanting to win. It was a game of momentum, and I think by far the biggest play was the kickoff return for a touchdown. It just got us back in it. We put our very best players on special teams and it paid off."

No. 24 SOUTH CAROLINA

COLUMBIA, S.C. -- The No. 6 Georgia Bulldogs fell to the No. 24 South Carolina Gamecocks 35-38 at Williams-Brice Stadium in Columbia, S.C., on Saturday, Sept. 13, in front of a sellout crowd of 84,232 and a nationally televised CBS audience. Georgia drops to 1-1 (0-1 SEC) on the season, while South Carolina improves to 2-1 (1-1). The loss moves Georgia to 47-17-2 in the all-time series against the Gamecocks and marks the third straight game in which the Bulldogs have fallen in Columbia. Georgia last won at Williams-Brice in 2008.

Junior tailback Todd Gurley posted his 15th career 100-yard rushing game with a 20-attempt, 131-yard rushing effort on the evening. Gurley had a long of 40 yards and found his way into the end zone on a 2-yard run in the third quarter. Senior quarterback Hutson Mason led the passing attack for Georgia and went 16 of 22 for 191 yards and two touchdowns. Senior Chris Conley led all Bulldog receivers with four receptions for 49 yards.

South Carolina received the ball to start the game and embarked on a 9-play, 75-yard drive that culminated in a 10-yard touchdown pass from Dylan Thompson to wide receiver Shaq Roland. Georgia then took just two plays to tie things up 7-7 at the 10:02 mark. Senior quarterback Hutson Mason hit freshman Isaiah McKenzie for a 36-yard gain before finding freshman running back Sony Michel on an underneath route for a 33-yard touchdown.

A South Carolina fumble on the ensuing drive then gifted Georgia possession at the Gamecocks' 26-yard line but the Bulldogs were forced to settle for a 36-yard Marshall Morgan field goal as they took a 10-7 lead midway through the first quarter. The field goal set an SEC record for most consecutive field goals made.

The Bulldogs thought they had forced another turnover on South Carolina's next offensive series, but a Devin Bowman interception was negated by a pass interference call on the third-year defensive back. Thompson found Pharoh Cooper just three plays later for an 8-yard touchdown pass that gave the Gamecocks a 14-10 lead. Georgia then scored a 26-yard field goal on their next possession.

Up 14-13, Thompson led the Gamecocks on a 10-play, 75-yard drive that was capped-off by an 18-yard touchdown pass to Rory Anderson with 5:34 remaining in the first half. After Morgan missed his first field goal in 21 straight attempts on Georgia's next possession, South Carolina moved into field goal range and used a 32-yard kick by Elliott Fry to take a 24-13 lead into the break.

Georgia received to start the second half and used a heavy dose of Gurley to quickly move the ball into South Carolina territory. The junior tailback ripped off a 40-yard run and converted a fourth-and-one before punching the ball into the end zone on a 2-yard rush to cut the Gamecocks' lead to 24-20. The Georgia defense was unable to make a stop on South Carolina's next possession, though, as the Gamecocks' regained their 11-point advantage through a Thompson touchdown run with 5:07 left to play in the third.

After punts by both teams, Georgia moved the ball inside the South Carolina 10-yard line. Mason then found Jay Rome for a 5-yard touchdown pass and used a completion to Michael Bennett on the subsequent two-point conversion to cut the Gamecocks' lead to 31-28 with 14:55 to play.

A long return by Shon Carson on the resulting kickoff set the Gamecocks up at their own 42 to start a touchdown drive that culminated in a 24-yard touchdown run by Brandon Wilds. With South Carolina up 38-28 at the 13:01 mark, the Bulldogs used a series of rushes by Quayvon Hicks to move into opposition territory and cross the goal line from a yard out on their next drive. The 11-play, 75-yard drive took 5:51 off the clock and put the score at 38-35.

The Georgia defense then got the turnover it so desperately needed when Damian Swann picked off Thompson on third-and-10 at the Gamecocks' 24 and returned the interception all the way to the South Carolina 6-yard line. However, the Bulldogs could not capitalize on offense and Morgan missed his potential game-tying kick just inches wide of the upright.

South Carolina then used a key conversion on fourth-and-inches at the 49 yard line to run out the remaining 1:26 of the clock and hold on for the 38-35 win.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"I'm sure that was a fun game to watch once it got started, especially if you are a South Carolina fan. Hats off to the South Carolina program and the job they did. I think they definitely played hard; they wanted to win, obviously. I think they played hard enough to win. We just didn't seize the moment."

- Quarterback Hutson Mason took just two plays to direct the Bulldogs to a score on their first drive, hitting freshman running back Sony Michel for the rookie's first career touchdown reception. It was the first touchdown pass for the Bulldogs in Columbia since David Greene to Reggie Brown in 2004.
- Senior DT Toby Johnson and freshman WR Isaiah McKenzie made their first career starts.
- The game was delayed 1:26 for a lightning strike prior to kickoff.

TROY

Sept. 20, 2014 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. -- The No. 13/14 Georgia Bulldogs handed the Troy Trojans a 66-0 loss in front of 92,746 fans and a televised SEC Network audience on Saturday, September 20, at Sanford Stadium in Athens, Ga. The Bulldogs are now 2-1 on the year, while Troy falls to 0-4 on the year. The win marked the first time that Georgia has scored more than 60 points in a game since 2011 against New Mexico State.

Sony Michel had a career day, rushing for 155 yards on 10 carries and three touchdowns, averaging 15.5 yards per carry. Todd Gurley finished with 73 yards on six carries in limited time on the field. Hutson Mason went 8-for-12 for 97 yards and two touchdowns to lead the passing attack. Brice Ramsey and Faton Bauta each saw action in the game, combining for 83 yards and two touchdowns. Michael Bennett finished with three catches for 34 yards and two touchdowns, while Chris Conley added 58 yards on two catches. Jordan Jenkins led the team defensively, totaling five tackles, including three solo stops and 1.5 tackles for loss.

On the opening drive, Troy went all the way to the Georgia nine-yard line, but the defense held, forcing Troy to attempt a field goal, which sailed wide. On the ensuing drive, Gurley took the ball 70 yards on four carries, setting the Bulldogs up at the Troy 10-yard line. Michel took it the rest of the way, picking up 10 yards on two carries for the touchdown that gave Georgia a 7-0 lead after Marshall Morgan's extra point.

Troy got the ball back, but promptly turned it over on the first play of the drive. Rico Johnson forced the fumble, which was recovered by Aaron Davis. Davis returned the ball 11 yards to the Troy 27. Georgia stretched the lead to 14-0 on a Mason pass to Kenneth Towns.

The Bulldogs extended their lead to 21-0 on a two play, 83-yard drive that took just 33 seconds. On the first play of the drive, Michel raced 75 yards down the sideline. Michel got the call again, hammering up the middle for eight yards and the score. Georgia added a field goal at the start of the second quarter, a 37 yarder by Marshall Morgan that made it a 24-0 game.

The Georgia defense forced a three-and-out on the next Troy drive, resulting in a 34-yard punt that was returned 52 yards for a touchdown by Isaiah McKenzie that put the Bulldogs up 31-0. It was the first punt returned for a touchdown since Brandon Boykin accomplished the feat in 2012 against Michigan State in the Outback Bowl.

Michel added his third touchdown of the game on Georgia's next drive. Mason began the drive with a sideline passes to Shakenneth Williams that set the Bulldogs up at the Troy 32. Michel finished the drive with a pair of rushes for 18 yards and a touchdown that made it a 38-0 game.

Troy put together a nine play, 40-yard drive but turned it over on downs after a failed fourth down conversion. Ramsey came in under center on the ensuing drive and orchestrated an eight-play, 61-yard drive that took 2:36 off the clock and put Georgia up 45-0. Ramsey's first career completion went to Conley for 19 yards. He found Conley again three plays later for a 39-yard completion that gave Georgia a first down at the Troy three. After a penalty moved Georgia back to the six-yard line, Ramsey connected with Bennett for a six-yard touchdown that extended the lead to 45-0.

Georgia made it a 52-0 game on the opening drive of the second half. Michel set up in the wildcat and handed the ball to McKenzie, who took it 49 yards to the Troy 26. Three plays later, Mason tossed a 10-yard touchdown to Bennett that made it a 51-0 game.

Troy threatened on its second possession of the second half. Troy marched down to the Georgia 10-yard line before Tramel Terry picked off Dontreal Pruitt in the end zone. It was the first career interception for Terry and the second turnover by the Georgia defense in the game.

Bauta led the team on a pair of touchdown drives in the fourth quarter. The first was an eight-play, 62 yard drive that took 4:13 and made it a 59-0 game. Brendan Douglas was the leading rusher on the drive, picking up 33 yards on four carries before Bauta scored on a seven-yard run. Bauta again found the end zone with 6:18 left in the game, giving Georgia a 66-0 lead.

Coach Mark Richt said…
"The greatest thing that happened today was the play on both the offensive and defensive lines. The offensive line created space for the runners and gave the quarterbacks time to throw. The defensive line took care of business and made it hard for them to run the ball. It was a really good performance."

Worth Noting…

- The Bulldogs' 66-0 win over Troy is the most points for Georgia since 1994 when it beat Northeast Louisiana 70-6. The margin of victory of 66 is the most since 1958 when the Bulldogs blanked Citadel 76-0. Georgia's last shutout came during a 38-0 win at Auburn in 2012.
- Georgia tallied 367 rushing yards, the most in the Richt era.
- Freshman receiver Isaiah McKenzie ran back a punt 52 yards for a touchdown to put Georgia up 31-0 at the 10:48 mark in the second quarter. This was the Bulldogs' first punt return for a score since Brandon Boykin ran 92 yards against Michigan State in the 2012 Outback Bowl.
- Georgia now holds a +4 turnover margin on the year and has converted those miscues into 10 points.
- Eleven Georgia players hit the field for the first time against Troy. Freshman TE Jeb Blazevich got his first career start.
- Both Georgia and Troy ran 61 plays, but the Bulldogs put up 547 yards to Troy's 216.
- Captains for the game were seniors David Andrews (C), Toby Johnson (DT), junior Todd Gurley (TB), and freshman Sony Michel (RB).

TENNESSEE

Sept. 27, 2014 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. -- The No. 12 Georgia Bulldogs took a 35-32 win over the Tennessee Volunteers in front of a sold out crowd of 92,746 and a nationally televised ESPN audience in Athens, Ga., on Saturday, Sept. 27. The Bulldogs are now 3-1 on the year and 1-1 in the Southeastern Conference. Tennessee is now 2-2 on the year and 0-1 in the SEC.

Todd Gurley led the Bulldogs on the ground, rushing for 208 yards and two touchdowns on 28 carries. The game marked the 16th 100-yard rushing game for Gurley, which ties for fourth most in Georgia history. He recorded his 32nd rushing touchdown of his career. Nick Chubb finished the game with 32 yards on 11 carries. Hutson Mason led the Bulldogs with 147 yards on 16-for-25 passing. Michael Bennett, Gurley and Chris Conley were his top targets, finishing with 31, 30 and 30 yards respectively. Mason also accounted for 30 yards on the ground and one touchdown.

Defensively, the Bulldogs were led by Amarlo Herrera with 10 tackles. Ramik Wilson finished with nine tackles, including one tackle for a loss. Damian Swann finished the day with eight tackles, five of which were solo stops. In all the Bulldogs finished three sacks and eight tackles for losses. The defense had five pass breakups on the day.

Tennessee scored on its first two possessions of the game, jumping out to an early 10-0 lead. On the opening drive, the Vols drove 43 yards on nine plays but settled for a 46-yard field goal that put them up 3-0. Tennessee scored on its next drive on a one-yard touchdown run by Jalen Hurd that made it a 10-0 game.

After a tackle of a loss and a sack, the Bulldogs forced Tennessee to punt with just over two minutes left in the first quarter. Isaiah McKenzie fielded the punt and returned it 29 yards to the Tennessee 32. Georgia needed just four plays to go 32 yards. Gurley took the ball 16 yards on the first play of the drive before Mason found Bennett for seven yards. After a six-yard run by Gurley, Mason rushed three yards on the keeper for the touchdown that cut the lead to 10-7 after the Marshall Morgan extra point.

Georgia took a 14-10 lead under eight minutes left in the half on an 11-play, 87-yard drive. The Bulldogs kept it on the ground for much of the drive, with Gurley taking it for 25 yards before Chubb added 20 yards on three carries. Gurley came back in to finish the drive off with a pair of runs, including the touchdown run of one yard that made gave Georgia a 14-10 lead.

On their next drive, the Bulldogs went 81 yards on 11 plays that resulted in a touchdown extending the Georgia lead to 21-10. Georgia went with a healthy mix of run and pass plays that allowed them to convert five first downs. Facing 2nd-and-11 at the Tennessee 20, Mason found Chubb out of the backfield for his first career reception. Chubb's catch went for the touchdown that put Georgia up 21-10.

Tennessee cut the lead to 21-17 with seven-play, 83-yard drive that took just under a minute. Hurd posted runs of 18 and 19 yards before catching a screen pass from Worley for 18 yards that set the Vols up at the Georgia 23. Worley then found Jason Croom down the sideline for a 23-yard touchdown that cut the lead to 21-17 at the half.

The defenses settled in during the third quarter, as the offenses combined for five punts. Georgia got the ball back with 11:09 remaining the game and produced a five-play, 77-yard drive that resulted in a 51-yard touchdown run by Gurley. In all, Gurley carried the ball 76 of the 77 yards on the drive.

Tennessee responded on the ensuing drive with a 52-yard drive that was capped off by a 31-yard touchdown pass to Pig Howard. The Vols then went for two and got it to make it a 28-25 game.

The Vols got the ball back with 4:38 left on the clock after Colin Barber sent a punt deep into Tennessee territory that was down at the one. Two plays later, the handoff was fumbled and recovered by Josh Dawson in the end zone for a touchdown that put Georgia up 35-25.

Tennessee answered with a seven-play, 58-yard scoring drive that brought it within three at 35-32. The Vols tried for the onside kick, but Quayvon Hicks recovered it at the Tennessee 45-yard line. The Bulldogs were able to run the clock out for the final 2:14, converting two first downs, including one on fourth-and-three that sealed the 35-32 win.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"Both teams showed tremendous poise, both teams showed tremendous fight, both teams got behind and fought back, both teams had good things happen and capitalized and both teams had bad things and found a way to fight back."

- With the win, Georgia evened the all-time series against UT at 21-21-2. It was the fifth straight win for the Bulldogs in the series.
- Junior TB Todd Gurley posted a career-high 208 rushing yards on 28 carries with 2 TDs. It was Gurley's 16th game with at least 100 yards rushing, which ties him with Garrison Hearst at No. 2 in the school record books.
- Gurley ended the day with 33 career rushing touchdowns, leaving him tied for third on Georgia's all-time list with Hearst.
- Georgia had two turnovers that resulted in zero points for the Volunteers but managed to score 7 points off of two Tennessee fumbles. Josh Dawson's fumble return for a TD in the fourth quarter was the Bulldogs' first fumble return for a TD since Marcus Howard vs. Hawaii at the 2008 Sugar Bowl.
- Freshman RB Nick Chubb's 20-yard TD reception was the first of his career.
- Sophomore J.J. Green made his first career start on defense at safety. Freshman Isaiah Wynn started at TE for the Bulldogs in his first career start.
- Captains for the game were senior Hutson Mason (QB), juniors Jordan Jenkins (OLB) and Todd Gurley (TB), and sophomore Reggie Davis (WR).

VANDERBILT

Oct. 4, 2014 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. -- The No. 13 Georgia football team took a 44-17 win over the Vanderbilt Commodores in front of 92,746 fans and a SEC Network televised audience on Saturday, Oct. 4, at Sanford Stadium in Athens, Ga. With the win, the Bulldogs improve to 4-1 overall that includes a 2-1 mark in Southeastern Conference play. Vanderbilt dropped to 1-5 on the year and 0-4 in league play.

Hutson Mason finished with 121 yards and two touchdowns on 11-for-17 passing. Chris Conley was his top target in the end zone, catching both of Mason's touchdown passes. Jeb Blazevich finished with 86 yards on three catches. Todd Gurley led Georgia's rushing attack, finishing with 163 yards and two touchdowns on 25 touches. He also had 24 receiving yards and completed a 50-yard pass, the first of his career. Nick Chubb finished with 78 yards and a touchdown on eight carries.

Amarlo Herrera finished with a team-best nine tackles, including four solo stops. Jordan Jenkins added seven tackles while Leonard Floyd had four tackles, including one sack. Devin Bowman produced the lone turnover of the game, intercepting a pass and returning it for a touchdown.

It did not take long for the Bulldogs to take the lead, moving ahead to 7-0 on the opening drive. The seven-play, 62-yard drive took 2:16 and was capped off by a five-yard touchdown run by Gurley. The drive was highlighted by a 12-yard pickup by Gurley and a 20-yard reception by Blazevich.

Georgia made it a 14-0 game with just over two minutes left in the first quarter. After a 16-yard completion to Blazevich gave Georgia a first down at the Vanderbilt 45 yard line, Gurley took a screen pass for 15 yards before rushing for 27 yards and a touchdown on consecutive touches. With the 14-yard scoring run, Gurley became just the fourth player in Georgia history to rush for at least 3,000 yards.

After forcing Vanderbilt to go three-and-out, the Bulldogs took over at the Vanderbilt 44 yard line with 1:34 left in the first quarter. On the first play of the drive, Mason found Chris Conley in the middle of the end zone for the touchdown that put the Bulldogs up 21-0.

The Commodores got on the board with 6:49 left in the first half. Stephen Rivers led the team on a seven-play, 66-yard drive that was capped off by a one-yard touchdown run by Ralph Webb that made it a 21-7 game.

Two drives later, the Bulldogs put together an 80-yard touchdown drive. The drive was kick started by a 50-yard, left-handed pass from Gurley to Blazevich that set Georgia up with 1st-and-10 at the Vanderbilt 27. After a nine-yard run, Mason and Conley connected for their second touchdown of the day that sent the Bulldogs into the locker room holding a 27-7 lead.

On the opening drive of the second half, Vanderbilt intercepted a Mason pass and returned it 35 yards to the Georgia 24. The Bulldogs held the Commodores to a 34-yard field goal that made it a 27-10 lead with just over 11 minutes left in the third quarter.

Vanderbilt looked poised to answer on the ensuing drive, moving the ball down to the Georgia 29. But Bowman picked off Rivers and returned the interception 63 yards for the touchdown, putting Georgia up 34-10. It was the first interception return for a touchdown of the season for the Bulldogs.

The Bulldogs added a field goal with 12:02 left in the game that brought the score to 37-10. Gurley accounted for every yard of the drive before Marshall Morgan connected on a 22-yard field goal.

The Commodores responded with an 11-play, 75-yard touchdown drive that cut the Georgia lead to 37-17 with 5:46 left in the game.

Vanderbilt got the ball back with just under four minutes to play, but went three-and-out, giving the offense another opportunity. Chubb carried much of the load in the final drive, tallying 59 yards on three carries, including a 33-yard touchdown run that put the score at 44-17 with 28 seconds left in the game.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"There's no doubt, victory is great. It sure beats losing. The guys did play hard. Defensively, we were outstanding most of the day. On offense, we ran the ball well and threw and caught better. We had more balance in the attack today. We've got a chance to keep improving as a football team. If we do that, we've got a chance to get back to Atlanta."

- The Bulldogs are now 74-17-2 in Homecoming games including winning their last eight. In the series with VU, Georgia now leads 54-19-2.
- Gurley is now one of only four Bulldogs to have 3,000+ yards rushing in his career with 3,147, joining Herschel Walker (5,259), Garrison Hearst (3,232) and Lars Tate (3,017).
- Gurley has the longest kickoff return (100) and longest completion (50) for the Bulldogs this year.
- Junior CB Devin Bowman returned an interception 63 yards for a touchdown to put Georgia up 34-10 in the third quarter. This marked the second straight week Georgia's defense has scored a touchdown. Bowman started and wore No. 19 rather than his regular No. 37 in honor of freshman CB Rico Johnson.
- On one play, senior QB Hutson Mason connected with senior receiver Chris Conley for a 44-yard touchdown strike to go up 21-0. This was the Bulldogs' third one-play touchdown drive of the year and the quickest at nine seconds. With that touchdown, Conley joined the school's all-time top-10 list with 14 career touchdown receptions.
- Captains for the game were seniors David Andrews (C) and Damian Swann (CB) and juniors Jordan Jenkins (OLB) and Todd Gurley (TB).

No. 23 MISSOURI

Oct. 11, 2014 • Memorial Stadium - Columbia, Mo.

COLUMBIA, Mo. - The No. 13 Georgia Bulldogs used a strong defensive effort to take a 34-0 shutout win over No. 23 Missouri in front of a sold out Memorial Stadium and a nationally televised CBS audience in Columbia, Mo., on Saturday, Oct. 11. The win put the Bulldogs at 5-1 on the year, including a 3-1 mark in Southeastern Conference action. Missouri dropped to 4-2 on the year and 1-1 in league action. The win was the first time Missouri had been blanked since 2002.

The Georgia defense forced five turnovers, including four interceptions to keep Missouri off the board. Quincy Mauger led the take-away parade with two interceptions. The Bulldogs also had three sacks on the day as Leonard Floyd and Lorenzo Carter had one each. Ramik Wilson, Amarlo Herrera and Tim Kimbrough led the team with four tackles each.

Nick Chubb recorded his first 100-yard rushing game, finishing with 143 yards on 38 carries and a touchdown. Brendan Douglas added 65 yards and a touchdown on 13 carries. Hutson Mason led Georgia's passing attack, going 22-for-28 for 156 yards and a touchdown. Michael Bennett was his top target, hauling in 53 yards on five catches.

Georgia opened up to a 20-0 lead in the first half after scoring on the four of the first five possessions of the game. The defense started the day strong, forcing Mizzou to punt on its opening drive. On the ensuing possession, Mason orchestrated an 11-play, 45-yard drive that resulted in a 47-yard field goal by Marshall Morgan that put Georgia up 3-0. The drive was highlighted by a 12-yard pass from Mason to Chubb that gave the Bulldogs a first down inside Mizzou territory.

Georgia got another chance on the next Missouri drive, as Mauger picked off Maty Mauk at the Missouri 47. The Bulldogs were unable to get any points off of the interception, but were given a second chance on the next drive. On the second play of the drive, Damian Swann intercepted Mauk. The Bulldogs were able to put points on the board after a six yard pass from Mason to Jeb Blazevich set up a 29-yard field goal that made it a 6-0 game.

The Bulldogs added seven points after a 13-play, 71-yard drive. Mason spread the ball around on the drive, hitting three different receivers before taking the ball in on an 11-yard touchdown run.

Mason and the rest of the Georgia offense kept the pressure on, scoring a touchdown on its next possession to make it a 20-0 game. Malcolm Mitchell and Bennett recorded catches of five and 11 yards, respectively, to put the Bulldogs at midfield. Facing 2nd-and-11, Chubb scampered for 18 yards and a first down. Georgia kept the Tigers guessing by mixing both run and pass plays to get inside the Mizzou 10. On 1st-and-Goal, Mason put the ball where only Bennett could get in the back corner of the end zone for a touchdown that made it a 20-0 game. The teams had a couple more chances in the first half, but the Bulldogs maintained its 20-0 lead going into halftime. It was the first time since 2004 that a team had held Mizzou scoreless in the first half.

The Bulldog defense continued to disrupt Mauk in the opening possessions of the second half, as Mauger and Dominick Sanders recorded interceptions on each of Mizzou's first two drives. It was the third and fourth interception of the game for Mauk and the Tigers. Following Sanders' pick, the Georgia offense kept the ball on the ground, as Chubb tallied 28 yards before Douglas ran the final 18, including a 15-yard touchdown run that ended with him flipping over the defender and into the end zone, putting Georgia up 27-0 following the extra point.

It was all Chubb on the next offensive possession for the Bulldogs. Working with a short field after taking over near midfield, Chubb rushed for 43 of Georgia's 52 yards during the 10-play drive that ate over six minutes off the clock. The drive was capped off by a nine-yard touchdown run by Chubb, his first touchdown of the day, that made it a 34-0 game.

Mizzou got the ball back after the touchdown, but the Bulldogs forced a three-and-out. On the ensuing possession, Georgia stuck to its ground game and held the ball for the final 6:24 of the game. Douglas was the workhorse on the final drive, gaining 27 yards to seal the 34-0 win.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"We're very excited about the victory. You just don't expect that coming in here to Missouri, where you find a football team on both sides of the ball, special teams, they are just an outstanding team. For us to have that type of performance is pretty exciting for me, so I am very thankful for the win and looking forward to playing Arkansas next week."

Worth Noting…

- With the 34-0 win, the Bulldogs posted their first-ever road shutout victory over a ranked opponent at the opponent's home stadium.
- Freshman Nick Chubb exploded for a career-high 38 carries and 143 yards with one touchdown. It was his first start and his first 100-yard rushing game.
- The Georgia defense held the Tigers to just 147 yards of total offense.
- The total of 87 plays run by the Bulldog offense was tied for the most ever under Mark Richt, while the 58 rushing plays were the most ever in the Richt era.
- The Bulldogs forced one fumble and picked-off Missouri QB Maty Mauk four times to improve to a +9 turnover differential on the season. The last time Georgia had four interceptions in a game was back in 2008 during the 41-10 Sugar Bowl victory over No. 10 Hawaii.
- The Bulldogs now have eight interceptions on the 2014 season, which is one more than the seven they posted in all of 2013.
- Chubb got his first career start. Sophomore Brendan Langley started his first game of the season and fifth overall in his career after reverting back to the defensive side of the ball. WR Justin Scott-Wesley played for the first time this season after hurting his knee last year.
- Captains for the game were seniors David Andrews (C), Ray Drew (DE), and Damian Swann (CB).

ARKANSAS

Oct. 18, 2014 • War Memorial Stadium - Little Rock, Ark.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Nick Chubb had his first career 200-yard rushing game as the No. 10 Georgia Bulldogs earned a 45-32 win over the Arkansas Razorbacks on Saturday, October 18, in front of 54,959 fans and a nationally televised SEC Network audience at War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock, Ark. With the win, the Bulldogs improved to 6-1 on the year and 4-1 in Southeastern Conference games. Arkansas is now 3-4 overall and 0-4 in league play.

The win marked the nation's first win over an SEC Western Division opponent this season, as the SEC West entered the game with a 26-0 record.

Chubb was the story of the game, rushing for 202 yards and two touchdowns on 30 carries. Hutson Mason finished with 179 yards on 10-for-17 passing and a pair of touchdowns. He also added a rushing touchdown. Chris Conley was his top target, gaining 128 yards and two touchdowns on five catches.

Georgia got two fumbles and two interceptions from its defense, turning them into 21 points. Georgia is now +13 in turnover margin for the year. Quincy Mauger and Damian Swann each had an interception for the Bulldogs. Ramik Wilson led the team with 14 tackles, including five solo stops. Swann had 11 tackles, eight of which were unassisted, while Amarlo Herrera and Leonard Floyd added 10 tackles each. Wilson, Swann, Floyd and Jordan Jenkins had tackles for a loss.

Arkansas scored on its opening drive, going 75 yards on 13 plays in 7:51. The touchdown came on an 11-yard run, but Ray Drew blocked the extra point attempt, resulting in a 6-0 Razorback lead.

The Bulldogs responded with 38 unanswered points in the first half. Highlighting Georgia's first drive was a 48-yard pass from Mason to Conley that set Georgia up at the Arkansas 26. Four plays later, Mason rushed into the end zone for the touchdown that gave Georgia a 7-6 lead after Marshall Morgan's PAT was good.

The Bulldogs got the ball back on their own 29 with 3:19 left in the first quarter. Conley picked up 40 yards on two catches that put Georgia at the Arkansas 14-yard line. Morgan connected on a 37-yard field goal that extended Georgia's lead to 10-6.

Chubb added the next two scores for the Bulldogs. He boosted the Georgia lead to 17-6 on a 43-yard touchdown run. On the following drive, Chubb rushed for 42 yards on three carries. The Bulldogs were helped by a personal foul call against Arkansas that set up a fresh set of downs at the 3-yard line. Chubb took it into the end zone to cap the drive and lift Georgia to a 24-6 lead over the Razorbacks.

On the first play after the kickoff, Arkansas fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Floyd at the Arkansas seven-yard line. One play later, Mason found Michael Bennett in the end zone for six. After the Bennett touchdown, Morgan's extra point was good, bringing the score to 31-6.

Arkansas looked to gain some momentum, driving down to the Georgia 34 yard-line. On a fourth-and-six situation, Jenkins sacked Brandon Allen, forcing a fumble that was picked up by Dominick Sanders, who returned it 54 yards for a touchdown. That turnover made it a 38-6 game after the PAT.

The Razorbacks tried to fight back into the game, moving all the way down to the Georgia 20. Allen looked to the end zone on third down, but Swann was waiting and intercepted his pass. The interception allowed Georgia to enter halftime with a 38-6 lead.

Arkansas scored on its first two possessions of the second half. The first touchdown came after a 12-play, 71-yard drive but a failed two-point conversion resulted in a 38-12 score. The second touchdown came on a seven play, 57-yard drive that brought the score to 38-19.

Looking to keep the momentum on its next drive, Arkansas threw on third down, but Mauger was waiting and intercepted the pass. On the third play of the ensuing drive, Mason found Conley for 36 yards and the touchdown that allowed Georgia to extend its lead to 45-19.

The Razorbacks kept chipping away at the Georgia lead, scoring on a nine play, 90-yard drive that cut the lead to 45-32 after a failed two-point conversion. That would be all that Arkansas could get, as the Bulldogs kept it on the ground on the final drive of the game and ran out the clock to seal the 45-32 win.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"It was an outstanding victory. I'm very proud of our team. Obviously the first half was about as good as you could ever hope a first half to go. I'm very impressed with how we played in the second half. I think we still played hard, but they played better than us for a good bit of that second half... I'm as happy as I could be with that victory."

Worth Noting…

- Georgia notched the nation's first win over an SEC Western Division team this season as that side of the conference came in 26-0 this year against non-SEC West opponents.
- Georgia's 38 points in the first two quarters were the most points the Bulldogs have scored against an SEC team in the first half since 1984 when they led Vanderbilt 42-21 and eventually won 62-35.
- Freshman Nick Chubb, making only his second career start, finished with a career-high 202 yards on 30 carries with 2 TDs. He is the second Bulldog to go over 200 yards in a game this year, joining junior Todd Gurley who had 208 in the win over Tennessee.
- Georgia got two fumbles and two interceptions and turned them in to 21 points. Georgia now leads the nation with a +13 turnover margin for the year.
- Senior DE Ray Drew blocked a PAT on Arkansas' first TD. It was the first blocked PAT by the Bulldogs since 2012 when Kwame Geathers notched one versus Florida Atlantic.
- Captains for the game were seniors Michael Bennett (SE), Hutson Mason (QB), Mike Thornton (N) and sophomore Leonard Floyd (OLB).

FLORIDA

Nov. 1, 2014 • EverBank Stadium - Jacksonville, Fla.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - The No. 9 Georgia football team dropped a 38-20 game to the Florida Gators on Saturday, November 1, in front of 83,004 fans and a CBS nationally televised audience at EverBank Field in Jacksonville, Fla. The Bulldogs are now 6-2 on the year and 4-2 in Southeastern Conference actions. Florida is 4-3 overall and 3-3 in the SEC.

Hutson Mason was 26-for-41 for 319 yards and a touchdown. It was a career best in both attempts and completions. His top target was Malcolm Mitchell who finished with 55 yards on seven catches. Michael Bennett finished with 60 yards on six catches, while Nick Chubb had 59 yards on five catches. Chubb led the rushing attack, going for 156 yards and a touchdown on 21 attempts.

Defensively, the Bulldogs were led by Amarlo Herrera, who finished with 11 tackles, including 1.5 tackles for loss. Leonard Floyd faded nine tackles, while Jordan Jenkins tacked on eight.

Georgia scored first, taking a 7-0 lead on a nine-play, 85-yard drive that took 2:43. Chubb carried the load before taking the ball 39 yards to the end zone for the score.

The Bulldogs looked to add to its lead after Jordan Jenkins recovered a fumble at the Florida 48. The Bulldogs were able take the ball down to the 22-yard line, but the windy conditions came into play as Marshall Morgan was unable to connect on a 22-yard field goal. During the drive, Chubb went over 100 yards for the third time of the season. He finished with 101 in the first quarter.

The Gators answered on the next drive, scoring on a fake field goal with 8:25 on the clock that made it a 7-7 game. After a three-and-out by Georgia, Florida scored on its next drive, going 64 yards in five plays. A 44-yard run set up the two-yard touchdown run that made it a 14-7 lead after the extra point.

Florida scored the next 10 points of the game. The Gators put together a six-play, 73-yard touchdown drive on the opening possession of the second half. The touchdown was scored on a 44-yard run that put Florida up 21-7 after the extra point. The Gators added a field goal on their next drive that extended their lead to 24-7.

The Bulldogs looked to answer on the ensuing drive, completing a slant pass to Malcolm Mitchell for 11 yards. Chubb broke off a 35 yard run, but the ball was stripped from behind, forcing a fumble that was recovered by the Gators. The turnover did not hurt the Bulldogs as the defense forced and three-and-out and the Gators to punt.

Georgia was unable to find an offensive rhythm and had to punt on the next possession. Florida returned the punt 38 yards to the Georgia 26. The Gators scored five plays later to make it a 31-7 game.

The Bulldogs responded with a nine-play, 68-yard touchdown drive. Chubb started the drive with a four-yard gain. Mason found Bennett on a slant for a 12-yard gain. Three plays later Mason and Chubb connected for 15 yards and a first down at the UF37. On second down, Mason completed a 10-yard touchdown pass to Chubb. Georgia went for two after the play, but was unable to convert, resulting in a 31-13 game.

Georgia put together an 11-play, 68-yard drive that saw it work its way down to the Florida two-yard line. Georgia went for it on fourth down, but the pass was deflected, allowing Florida to get the ball back at its own 2-yard line.

On the ensuing drive, Florida tacked on a touchdown that gave them a 38-13 lead. The touchdown was scored on a 65-yard run by Kelvin Taylor.

The Bulldogs added a touchdown with three seconds left in the game. Mason took to the air, completing passes of 25 and 24 to Chris Conley and Davis before Brendan Douglas ran for the one-yard touchdown run that cut the lead to 38-20.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"Four hundred yards rushing; that's pretty impressive. That was the story of the game. We couldn't run it the way we like to, and they did. That was a big part of the game. When they score a touchdown, you have to come back and play ball. Little by little they continued to run the ball and pound the ball, and we didn't have an answer for it."

KENTUCKY

Nov. 8, 2014 • Commonwealth Stadium - Lexington, Ky.

LEXINGTON, Ky. - Senior Hutson Mason threw four touchdown passes and freshman Isaiah McKenzie posted two special teams scores as No. 17 Georgia defeated Kentucky 63-31 on Saturday, Nov. 8, at Commonwealth Stadium in front of crowd of 60,152 and nationwide audience on ESPN.

The Bulldogs had a season-best 559 total yards and improved to 7-2 overall and 5-2 in the Southeastern Conference, while the Wildcats fell to 5-5 and 2-5. Georgia improved to 54-12-2 against Kentucky, including five straight wins and 16 of the past 18.

Playing just three quarters, Mason went 13-of-16 for 174 yards with a career-best four touchdown passes. Mason fired two to receiver Chris Conley and one each to receiver Malcolm Mitchell and tight end Jeb Blazevich.

McKenzie sparked the Bulldogs as he returned the opening kickoff 90 yards for a touchdown, then added a 59-yard punt return for a score in the third quarter. He became only the 12th player in NCAA history to score on a kickoff return and a punt return in the same game.

Tailback Nick Chubb rushed for 170 yards -- including 116 in the first half -- and a touchdown. It marked his fourth straight 100-yard game. Tailback Sony Michel, returning from a shoulder injury that sidelined him for four games, added 84 yards and a touchdown.

Linebacker Ramik Wilson paced the defense with 12 tackles. Linebacker Lorenzo Carter added nine tackles, including three sacks, to earn SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week honors and linebacker Amarlo Herrera posted seven stops.

The Bulldogs built a 21-0 first-quarter lead. McKenzie returned the opening kickoff 90 yards for a score just 11 seconds into the contest. Six minutes later, Mason hit Conley on a 15-yard touchdown pass. Georgia later added an 18-yard scoring run by Chubb to cap a season-best 91-yard scoring drive.

After Kentucky pulled within 21-10 in the second quarter, Mason drilled a 23-yard touchdown pass to Mitchell for a 28-10 edge. The Wildcats scored to make it 28-17, but the Mason-Conley connection worked again on a 4-yard scoring pass for a 35-17 lead. Kentucky found the end zone just before halftime as the Bulldogs led 35-24 at the break.

In the first half, Chubb had 116 yards on seven carries, giving him his fourth straight 100-yard game. Chubb also had a career-long 55-yard rush prior to intermission.

The Bulldogs methodically pulled away with 21 third-quarter points to go up 56-24. Mason hit Blazevich on a 10-yard scoring pass, McKenzie returned a punt for a 59-yard touchdown, and Michel had a 23-yard scoring run.

In the fourth quarter, quarterback Brice Ramsey found Blazevich on a twice-deflected pass that resulted in an 8-yard touchdown. The Wildcats added a late score for the 63-31 final.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"Very pleased with what happened today. I'm proud of our players. I thought they did a really good job. Obviously, to start the game with a kickoff return for a touchdown was huge. Isaiah (McKenzie) did a good job of finding it. We played about as good as we practiced on that team. It was a great week of practice on the kickoff return team. We talked a lot about starting the second half better for the season. The way we came out in the second half was maybe more impressive than how we came out in the first. I'm just really proud of the team and what they did today and the coaches and everybody involved. It was a good day."

No. 9 AUBURN

Nov. 15, 2014 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. - The No. 14 Georgia Bulldogs scored 34 unanswered points as it upset the ninth-ranked Auburn Tigers 34-7 on Saturday, Nov. 15, in front of a sold out crowd of 92,746 and a nationally-televised ESPN audience in Athens, Ga.

The running back tandem of Todd Gurley and Nick Chubb carried the Georgia offense. Each runner went for over 100 yards marking the first time since 2012 that the Bulldogs have had two 100-yard rushers. Chubb led the team with 144 yards and two touchdowns on 19 carries, while Gurley finished with 138 yards and one touchdown on 29 attempts. Along with his 144 yards, Chubb became the 12th Bulldogs in program history to rush for 1,000 yards. Hutson Mason was 10-for-19 for 123 yards and touchdown on the night. Chubb was hit top target, finishing with 48 receiving yards. Michael Bennett added 29 yards, while Malcolm Mitchell registered 13 yards and a touchdown.

Amarlo Herrera led the team defensively, finishing with 12 tackles, including one tackle for a loss and an interception. Damian Swann and Ramik Wilson finished with eight tackles each. Leonard Floyd had the lone sack of the night.

Auburn struck first, taking a 7-0 lead on a 10-play, 70-yard drive that took just over four minutes. Cameron Artis-Payne scored the touchdown on a 26-yard run.

A muffed punt and a fumble recovery by Lucas Redd breathed new life into the Georgia offense. Sitting at the 20-yard line, Gurley got the call on first down and rushed 11 yards. Mason then found Mitchell at the goal line for a touchdown that tied the game at 7-7.

The Bulldogs took the lead on their first drive of the second half. Chubb was the star of the drive, racking up 51 of Georgia's 83 yards. Facing 4th-and-1 at the Auburn 9-yard line, Georgia called a timeout and decided to go for it. The gamble paid off as Chubb carried it nine yards to the end zone for a touchdown that put the Bulldogs up 14-7.

Georgia was forced to punt on its next drive, but Auburn was flagged for roughing the kicker, which resulted in a first down for the Bulldogs. Georgia worked its way into Auburn territory but settled for a 32-yard field goal by Marshall Morgan that made it a 17-7 game.

Auburn got the ball back with 23 seconds left in the first half, but did not connect on the deep ball as time expired, allowing Georgia to enter the locker room with a 17-7 lead. The seven points was the fewest by Auburn this season.

The Bulldog defense shut down Auburn on its ensuing possession Georgia got the ball back near midfield and stuck to the ground on the drive. Chubb went over 1,000 yards on the drive, racking up 51 yards on five carries. Gurley finished off the drive with a three-yard touchdown run that put Georgia up 24-7 with 7:28 left in the third quarter.

Auburn turned the ball over on downs with 4:56 left in the third quarter after a Nick Marshall fourth-down pass to C.J. Uzomah fell incomplete. Georgia then put together a nine play, 46-yard drive that resulted in a 28-yard field goal by Morgan. A pass interference call and a 27-yard run by Chubb set up the field goal.

At the start of the fourth quarter, Auburn marched all the way down to the Georgia 15 yard line, but could not get any further as Georgia's defense had an answer for every play call. The Tigers went for it on 4th-and-13, but Herrera picked it off at the two-yard line, ending the chance for an Auburn score.

The Bulldogs kept the hammer down, driving 98 yards on 11 plays and taking up 6:34 on their next drive. Georgia methodically worked the clock and got the first downs when needed before Chubb rushed 11 yards up the middle for the touchdown, his second of the game, that extended Georgia's lead to 34-7.

Auburn got another chance, but a fumble with just over two minutes left in the game was recovered by Davin Bellamy. Georgia then got the ball back and ran out the clock, sealing the 34-7 win.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"It was a great night. The fans were spectacular, the students were ready, the Dog Walk was everything we hoped for, the band was great, and it took everybody to have this kind of performance. We were hoping we could be energized by our fans and that we could energize our fans by our play, and that's what happened."

Worth Noting…

- Georgia held Auburn to a season-low seven points; the lowest Auburn point total in Gus Malzahn's two years at the helm.
- The Bulldogs' 34-7 victory evened the Deep South's Oldest Rivalry at 55-55-8.
- Freshman Nick Chubb became the 12th Bulldog in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. Chubb finished with 144 yards on 19 carries and a touchdown, and hauled in two catches for 48 yards.
- Junior tailback Todd Gurley returned to action after missing four games and had 29 carries for 138 yards and a touchdown. He and Chubb became the first two Georgia backs to each rush for 100 yards in a game since Gurley and Keith Marshall did it against Auburn in 2012. However, Gurley sustained a season-ending ACL injury that finished his season in this year's contest.
- Georgia used an 11-play, 98-yard touchdown drive to take a 34-7 lead in the fourth quarter. It marked the longest TD drive by the Bulldogs since 2011.
- Senior C David Andrews made his team-leading 37th consecutive start.
- Captains for the game were seniors Kosta Vavlas (ILB), Mike Thornton (N), and David Andrews (C) and Chris Conley (WR).

CHARLESTON SOUTHERN

Nov. 22, 2014 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. - The No. 9 Georgia football team routed Charleston Southern 55-9 in front of 92,746 fans and a nationally-televised SEC Network audience on Saturday, Nov. 22, at Sanford Stadium in Athens, Ga. With the win, Georgia improved to 9-2 on the year, while Charleston Southern dropped to 8-4.

Nick Chubb led the ground game, finishing with 113 yards and two touchdowns on nine carries, including a career-long 83-yard touchdown run. It was his sixth consecutive 100-yard rushing game this season. Brendan Douglas finished with 66 yards on 12 carries. Hutson Mason, Brice Ramsey and Faton Bauta combined to go 20-26 with one interception in the passing game. Mason was 10-for-12 for 187 yards and three touchdowns, while Ramsey finished with 92 yards and a touchdown on eight completions. Chris Conley led Georgia's receiving corps with 68 yards and two touchdowns on three receptions. Jonathon Rumph added 67 yards and a touchdown on five catches. Justin Scott-Wesley also recorded a touchdown catch in the game.

Charleston Southern received the opening kickoff and moved it down to the 34-yard line. On 3rd-and-1, Damian Swann forced a fumble that was recovered by Ramik Wilson. On the first play after the fumble, Mason found Conley in the end zone for a touchdown that made it a 7-0 game after the Marshall Morgan PAT. After the defense forced a three-and-out, it took just two plays for the Bulldogs to take a 14-0 lead. Chubb broke free for an 83-yard touchdown run. It was the longest touchdown run of Chubb's career, the eighth longest in Georgia history and third longest for the Bulldogs in Sanford Stadium.

The Bulldogs kept the pressure on during its third drive of the game, going 65 yards in five plays. During the drive, CSU was flagged for pass interference, giving Georgia a fresh set of downs in Buccaneer territory. A 17-yard gain by Rumph helped set up the 19-yard touchdown catch by Scott-Wesley that gave Georgia a 21-0 lead after the extra point.

The scoring continued when Morgan connected on 53-yard field goal that put the Bulldogs up 24-0. It was the longest field goal of the season for Morgan.

Chubb got his second touchdown of the day that put Georgia up 31-0 after the point after. The touchdown capped off a 12-play, 77-yard drive that took just under five minutes. Highlighting the drive were first down catches by Conley and Rumph.

After a missed field goal, Charleston Southern took over on downs at its own 32. On the second play of the drive, Mauger intercepted the pass and returned it 13 yards. One the first play after the interception, Mason found an outstretched Conley in the back of the end zone for the touchdown that brought the score to 38-0 after the Morgan PAT.

Charleston Southern avoided the shutout after a 12-play, 47-yard drive resulted in a 45-yard field goal with less than a minute to go in the first half that made it 38-3.

The Bulldogs took over on downs with 7:46 left in the third quarter and drove 30 yards on seven plays before Morgan booted a 27-yard field goal that made it a 48-3 game.

Ramsey got the call to start the second half and on Georgia's opening drive threw a 12-yard touchdown strike to Rumph that increased Georgia's lead to 45-3. Jeb Blazevich helped set up the touchdown with a 20-yard catch that put Georgia inside CSU territory.

Quayvon Hicks got in on the scoring action with less than a minute left in the third quarter as he picked up 33 yards on a bruising touchdown run that gave Georgia a 55-3 lead.

Charleston Southern made it a 55-9 game with 9:55 left in the game versus Georgia's reserves. The Buccaneers' scoring drive went 71 yards on six plays in just over three minutes. The drive was highlighted by a 25-yard run before a two-yard touchdown run.

Georgia looked to answer with a score of its own, but a fumble at the Charleston Southern 10 ended the drive. The Buccaneers moved the ball near midfield on the drive, but ran out of time as Georgia sealed its 55-9 win.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"We talked all week about respecting this opponent and you show that respect by giving them your best shot. We did just that. Our focus was where it ought to be. The energy level was high, the execution was outstanding and we got some breaks with some turnovers. I was proud of the effort."

No. 15 GEORGIA TECH

Nov. 29, 2014 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. -- In the first overtime game in the history of Sanford Stadium, the No. 9 Georgia Bulldogs fell 30-24 to in-state rival and 15th-ranked Georgia Tech in front of 92,746 fans and a nationally televised SEC Network audience at Sanford Stadium in Athens, Ga.

Nick Chubb, who finished with 129 yards on 25 carries, once again led the Bulldogs offensively. It was his seventh-straight 100-yard rushing game. Hutson Mason finished with 194 yards, a touchdown and an interception on 18-for-28 passing. His top target was Malcolm Mitchell, who finished with 56 yards and a touchdown on seven catches. The Bulldog defense was led by Ramik Wilson and Amarlo Herrera, who each finished with a career-high 19 tackles. Damian Swann came up with a goal line fumble recovery that was returned for a school-record 99 yards and a score.

Georgia got on the board in a hurry, scoring on its opening drive. Chubb was the star of the drive, catching a 24-yard pass before rushing for 28 yards to set up 2nd-and-goal at the Georgia Tech four. Two plays later, the Bulldogs went for it on 4th-and-goal from the one. Chubb got the call and crossed the goal line for the score. Marshall Morgan connected on the extra point to give the Bulldogs an early 7-0 lead.

On Georgia's third drive of the game, Chubb broke off a 65-yard run that got the Bulldogs down to the Georgia Tech one-yard line. Two plays later, Chubb fumbled and it was recovered by the Jackets. The defense stepped up and forced Georgia Tech to punt. Tech looked to get on the board at the start of the second quarter when it lined up for a field goal at the Georgia 20, but Ray Drew blocked the kick. Georgia tried to take advantage of the blocked kick but fumbled into the end zone on the ensuing drive again on the GT1.

The Yellow Jackets drove the length of the field on the ensuing possession and scored on a 7-yard pass to Darren Waller that tied the game at 7-7. Georgia Tech then got the ball to start the second half and drove all the way to the Georgia seven. With the Yellow Jackets looking to score, Swann ripped the ball from Justin Thomas' arm and returned it 99 yards for a touchdown that put the Bulldogs up 14-7 after the PAT. The 99-yard return set a new Georgia record as the longest fumble return in school history.

The Bulldogs looked to add to their lead with just over six minutes left in the third quarter. Morgan lined up for a 49-yard attempt but the kick was blocked, resulting in Tech getting the ball at its own 37-yard line. Georgia Tech turned the blocked kick into seven points, driving 63 yards on eight plays to tie the game.

The Bulldogs put together a 15-play, 73-yard drive that resulted in the Bulldogs taking a 17-14 lead after Morgan connected on a 19-yard field goal. After the drive appeared to stall, Georgia lined up to attempt a field goal. Instead of the kick, holder Adam Erickson pitched the ball over his head and Morgan took the ball 28 yards to the Georgia Tech three for the first down. He completed the drive six plays later with a short field goal.

Georgia Tech responded with a touchdown drive that went 80 yards in 13 plays that allowed the Yellow Jackets to take a 21-17 lead with just over four minutes left on the clock. On the ensuing kickoff, the Yellow Jackets executed a perfect pooch kick, recovering the ball at the Georgia 27. The Yellow Jackets picked up 10 yards before a Thomas fumble was recovered by Herrera at the Georgia 31.

The fumble recovery gave Georgia another chance. Mason started the drive with a pair of passes to Conley for a pickup of 20 yards. Sony Michel picked up another 10 yards that put Georgia at the Tech 21. Mason and Conley hooked up for another big gain, setting the Bulldogs up with 1st-and-Goal at the Georgia Tech five-yard line. Facing 4th-and-goal with 22 seconds on the clock after a pair of incomplete passes and a short gain, Mason found Mitchell in the end zone for a three-yard touchdown pass that gave Georgia a 24-21 lead with 18 seconds left in the game.

However as time expired, kicker Harrison Butker was good from 53 yards, tying the game at 24-24 and sending it to overtime. Tech got the ball first and scored a touchdown but the extra point was blocked by Drew that made it a 30-24 game. In Georgia's overtime possession, Mason connected with Conley on third down for a gain of 10, giving the Bulldogs a fresh set of downs inside the 10. With Georgia looking for the winning touchdown, Mason's pass was intercepted by D.J. White, sealing Tech's win.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"I'm very proud of the players and how they played heroically. I'm disappointed the way it ended. … The guys played with a lot of heart and soul and put us in position to win. I'm so proud of the way they played and I'm sad it ended the way it did."

No. 20 LOUISVILLE

Dec. 30, 2014 • Bank of America Stadium - Charlotte, N.C.

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - The No. 13 Georgia football team earned a 37-14 win over the 20th-ranked Louisville Cardinals in front of a crowd of 45,671 and a nationally-televised ESPN audience in the Belk Bowl at Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte, N.C. The Bulldogs end the 2014 campaign with an overall record of 10-3. The Bulldogs have posted 10 or more wins 21 times, including nine times under Head Coach Mark Richt.

Despite leaving the game in the second quarter with an eye issue, Hutson Mason led the Bulldogs through the air. He went 10-for-15 for 148 yards and touchdown. Brice Ramsey was 4-for-9 for 51 yards in relief. Chris Conley was the top target, finishing with 81 yards and a touchdown down on four catches. As it was for much of the season, the offense was led by the run game. Nick Chubb was named the Belk Bowl MVP and finished with 269 yards and two touchdowns on 33 carries. His 269 yards were a career high, an SEC bowl record, marked his eighth-straight 100-yard rushing game and was the second-highest single game rushing total in Georgia history. Sony Michel finished with 11 carries for 31 yards.

Lorenzo Carter and Ramik Wilson led the defensive effort with eight tackles each. Both recorded one sack, with Carter's going for a loss of 19 yards on the final play of the game. Aaron Davis and Ray Drew finished with seven tackles each. As a unit, Georgia had three interceptions, with Dominick Sanders getting two. He became the sixth player in Georgia history to record two interceptions in a game.

Georgia struck first, taking a 7-0 lead on a nine-play, 60-yard drive in the first quarter. Chubb got the drive started by breaking off a 20-yard run. With the drive stalling, the Bulldogs got a spark when Louisville was called for a personal foul that gave Georgia a fresh set of downs. On 2nd-and-14, Mason connected with Conley for a 45-yard touchdown that gave the Bulldogs a 7-0 lead after the Marshall Morgan extra point.

The Cardinals answered on the next drive, going 84 yards on nine plays to tie the game at 7-7. The touchdown was scored on an 11-yard pass from Kyle Bolin to Gerald Christian.

Both offenses were quiet over the next several possessions. Georgia retook the lead after a nine-play, 43-yard drive led to a 41-yard field goal and gave UGA a 10-7 lead. The Bulldog defense remained stout on the next Louisville drive, allowing just seven net yards.

On the next Georgia drive, Mason hit Michel out of the backfield for 32 yards and a first down. Four plays later, Chubb raced 31 yards into the end zone for a touchdown that put the Bulldogs up 17-7 with just under seven minutes to go in the half.

On the first play of the next drive, Sanders intercepted a pass from Reggie Bonnafon. The interception resulted in three points as Morgan connected on a 22-yard field goal and extended Georgia's lead to 20-7. Louisville had a pair of chances late in the half, but the Georgia defense shut the Cardinals down and took a 20-7 lead into halftime.

The Bulldogs added a touchdown with 6:38 left in the third quarter that made it a 27-7 game. Starting at their own three-yard line, Chubb broke off a Georgia bowl record 82-yard run that set the Bulldogs up at the Louisville 15. Michel finished the drive, rushing for the final 15 yards and the score on two carries. Louisville answered with a touchdown drive of its own, going 70 yards in 10 plays. The drive was capped off by a six-yard touchdown run by Brandon Radcliff that cut the lead to 27-14 with just under two minutes left in the third.

Georgia worked its way down to the Louisville 36-yard line, but went for it on 4th-and-10. Ramsey's pass was incomplete, allowing Louisville to take over on downs. Damian Swann intercepted Kyle Bolin on the first play of the next drive.

The run game took over on the ensuing Georgia drive, picking up 23 yards before Ramsey connected with Kenneth Towns for 14 yards and a first down. The Bulldogs put together a 43-yard drive that took 4:13 off the clock and was capped off by a 41-yard field goal by Morgan that gave the Bulldogs a 30-14 lead. With the field goal, the Bulldogs set a single-season record in points scored this season (537).

The defense remained aggressive on Louisville's next drive, forcing a three-and-out on a drive that amassed just one yard. Nick Chubb carried the load on the final Georgia drive, accounting for all 45 yards and the touchdown that sealed the 37-14 win.

Louisville looked to score on its last possession, working its way down to the Georgia 10, but Carter burst through the line for a sack to end the game.

Coach Mark Richt said…
"Very proud of our team. It was a year that I thought we had overcome a lot. I think this game was maybe very similar to the type of season we had as far as losing some key people and other guys having to step up and make plays and just continue our focus and continue to fight. Just really, really proud of everybody."

- Freshman tailback Nick Chubb tallied a Belk Bowl and SEC bowl record of 266 yards on 33 carries. He was named Belk Bowl MVP for his efforts.
- Georgia started the same five players (John Theus, Brandon Kublanow, David Andrews, Greg Pyke, and Kolton Houston) on the offensive line in all 13 games this season.
- Tight end coach John Lilly assumed play-calling duties during the game after offensive coordinator Mike Bobo was hired as the head coach at Colorado State earlier in the month.

Capital One Bowl formerly known as the Tangerine Bowl and then the Citrus Bowl when Georgia has played in Orlando. All Orlando games included here.*

The 2008 Georgia seniors celebrate a Sugar Bowl win to finish 11-2.

HEAD COACH MARK RICHT

Head Coach Mark Richt came to Georgia with the goal of taking the lid off a program that had not won an SEC title in 20 years. After 14 seasons between the hedges, he's demonstrated what that means by winning two SEC Championships (2002, '05), five SEC Eastern Division titles and tied for another, and his 136-48 record is fourth best in the country in winning percentage among active coaches (.738). His teams have won ten or more games nine times and finished among the nation's top ten in the finals polls eight times. And his emphasis on graduation has come to fruition as 279 Bulldog players have earned their degrees during his tenure.

Richt was named SEC Coach of the Year in both 2002 and 2005. His record against non-conference teams is 59-12 and his teams are 46-15 when playing in an opponent's home stadium.

Richt is also one of only seven coaches in history to win two SEC championships (2002, 2005) in his first five years, and one of only seven head coaches in SEC history to record four straight 10-win seasons (2002-05). The respect he has nationally was demonstrated in 2010 when Richt was named to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees. He is also the 2013 recipient of the Stallings Award given for commitment to humanitarian and community service efforts.

The excitement produced by Richt's teams on the field has been matched by many other aspects surrounding the program. Richt has generated an atmosphere of excitement and unity among the Georgia people. Georgia supporters and fans became impressed with his sincerity, openness, family values, and the casual and genuine way he carried himself. They liked his ideas on building a football program, his commitment to discipline, and the importance he placed on standards of excellence on and off the field.

And they liked the way he refused to set limitations on what would be a satisfactory season.

"I like to set our goals high," he said. "I never want to put a ceiling on what we can accomplish."

Richt also had a reputation for developing quarterbacks at FSU and that has continued at UGA. David Greene was named SEC Freshman of the Year in 2001 and in '02, Greene led the SEC in passing efficiency and was the consensus choice for All-SEC first team. By the end of his career, Greene had become the SEC's all-time leading passer (11,528 yards) and set the NCAA Division 1-A record for career victories by a starting quarterback with 42. D.J. Shockley followed Greene in 2005 and led the SEC in passing efficiency. Matthew Stafford came next (2006-08) and set the Georgia record for season total offense in 2008 (3,499 yards) and finished third in career passing yardage (7,731).

In 2010, Aaron Murray finished second nationally in passing efficiency among freshman quarterbacks. In 2012, he set the school record for most TD passes in a season with 36. In 2013, Murray set four SEC career records: Passing Yards (13,166), Total Offense (13,562), TD Passes (121), and Completions (921). He is the only quarterback in SEC history to throw for more than 3,000 yards four consecutive years.

The NFL is also looking Georgia's way on a regular basis. Seventy two of Richt's players have been chosen in the NFL draft over the last 13 years including eight chosen in 2002 and 2013--the most Georgia players ever selected in a single year.

The Mark Richt Era At Georgia

2014: Nationally ranked in the top 15 for much of the year, the Bulldogs made their 18th consecutive appearance in a bowl game including all 14 seasons under Richt. Georgia led the SEC and ranked among the top 10 nationally in scoring at 41.3 points a game and finished third nationally in turnover margin at +16. The 'Dogs finished #9 in both polls.

2013: Besieged by injuries to numerous starters, the 'Dogs sill managed to defeat two top 10 teams (South Carolina and LSU) along with Tennessee, Florida (for the third straight season), and Georgia Tech (for the 12th time in 13 years). Georgia also earned its 17th straight bowl invitation.

2012: In racing to the SEC Eastern Division title, Richt's teams defeated Tennessee, Florida, Auburn, and Georgia Tech all in the same season for the second straight year. In the 32-28 loss to #2 Alabama in the SEC title game, the #3 UGA came within a few yards and a few seconds of earning a trip to the BCS national title game. The 'Dogs defeated Nebraska, 45-31, in the Capital One Bowl.

2011: Georgia won ten or more games for the seventh time in Richt's 11 years. The 'Dogs defeated rivals Tennessee, Florida, Auburn, and Georgia Tech all in the same season for the first time since 1981.

2010: With the loss of several key players during the season, the Dogs had the first losing season in the Richt era but still managed victories over rivals Tennessee and Georgia Tech.

2009: Georgia upset #7 Georgia Tech in the regular season finale and then won its fourth straight bowl game to complete the season at 8-5.

2008: Georgia finished with a 10-3 mark and number ten final national ranking—the sixth time in seven years the Bulldogs won ten or more games and also finished among the nation's top ten teams in the final national polls.

2007: One of the youngest teams in the country was 4-2 after six games but won the last seven in a row including victories over Florida, Auburn, and Georgia Tech to finish 11-2. The 'Dogs defeated #10 Hawai'i in The Allstate Sugar Bowl and finished #2 in the final AP poll and #3 in the coaches poll.

2006: After starting out 5-0, his 2006 team struggled through the middle of the schedule, but rebounded to defeat three top 20 teams in a row: #5 Auburn, #16 Georgia Tech, and #14 Virginia Tech in the Chick-fil-A Bowl. He was chosen to coach the 2007 Hula Bowl game in Hawaii.

2005: Picked to finish third in the SEC East, his 2005 team exceeded all expectations with a 10-2 regular season finish and SEC championship defeating third-ranked LSU in the title game. He was elected 2005 SEC Coach of the Year by the SEC Coaches.

2004: His 2004 team finished 10-2, won a third straight bowl game, and finished in the nation's top six in the final national rankings for the third consecutive season. Along the way in '04, the 'Dogs defeated defending national champion LSU, Georgia Tech for the fourth straight time and upended Florida for the first time since 1997. DE David Pollack became the most decorated defensive player in Georgia history with a third straight first team All-America selection and was recipient of the Lombardi, Bednarik, Lott, and Hendricks Trophies.

2003: Richt led the 'Dogs to the SEC title game for the second year in a row in '03, defeated Purdue in the Capital One Bowl, and had the 'Dogs in the top ten again with a final USA Today/ESPN Coaches ranking of 6th and a final AP ranking of 7th. Richt's team ranked 2nd nationally in Scoring Defense (14.5 ppg), 4th in Total Defense (276.86 ypg), 6th in Passing Defense (174.5 ypg), and 14th nationally in Turnover Margin (+.79).

2002: The Bulldogs post a 13-1 record, win their first SEC championship in 20 years, defeated Florida State in the Nokia Sugar Bowl, and finished the season with a number three national ranking. Georgia's championship run was a complete team effort, with the Dogs winning five games by a touchdown or less. Among Richt's team were three first team All-Americans and eight first team All-SEC performers. Richt himself was a consensus choice as SEC Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year Award. In addition, the '02 Bulldogs led the SEC in both scoring offense (32.2 ppg) and scoring defense (15.1 ppg).

2001: By the time his inaugural season in 2001 came to a close (8-4), he had become the first Georgia coach since H.J. Stegeman in 1920 to win eight games in his inaugural season. He had also handed Tennessee its only regular season defeat (in Knoxville on national television) and beaten arch rival Georgia Tech (for the first time since 1997).

The Road To Athens

Richt's career as a Bulldog began as a Christmas present that actually came the day after most gifts had been opened. On Dec. 26, 2000, he was named head coach at the University of Georgia after serving on the staff at Florida State for 15 years—the last seven as offensive coordinator.

Richt, a 1982 graduate of the University of Miami, coached the quarterbacks for 14 seasons at FSU. As offensive coordinator, he developed offenses that were among the most prolific in college football history while becoming one of country's most respected coaches.

Under Richt's direction, the FSU offense had been a national leader. In his seven years as offensive coordinator, the Seminoles finished in the nation's top five in scoring offense on five occasions, top 12 in total offense five times, and top 12 in passing offense five times. His 2000 offense finished the regular season ranked first nationally in total offense (549.0 ypg), first in passing offense (384.0 ypg), and third in scoring offense (42.4 ppg).

Richt sent six FSU quarterbacks into the NFL between 1987 and 2000. In addition to Weinke (Carolina Panthers), Washington Redskin Casey Weldon was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy in 1991. His teammate at FSU, Brad Johnson (now Richt's brother-in-law), was a Pro Bowl selection for Washington in 2000 and led the Tampa Bay Bucs to the Super Bowl title in 2003. Other Richt pro proteges include Danny Kanell (New York Giants), Danny McManus (Kansas City Chiefs) and Peter Tom Willis (Chicago Bears).

A native of Omaha, Nebraska, Richt played quarterback for the Miami Hurricanes under Howard Schnellenberger. He spent most of his career at Miami as a backup to former Buffalo Bills star Jim Kelly. In one of Richt's years at Miami, his quarterback teammates included Kelly, Vinny Testaverde, Bernie Kosar, and quarterbacks coach Earl Morral.

Richt is married to the former Katharyn Francis of Tallahassee. The couple have four children - Jonathan (24), a former quarterback at Mars Hill College, David (20), Zach (18), and Anya (17). Jon was married to the former Anna Cearley, in May 2010. They have a daughter, Jadyn Elise, born July 9, 2014.

Building a Family

Richt married Katharyn in 1987. They have four children. Two came along the usual way — Jon and David. But two came in a very special way.

"We were in Sunday School class one day talking about the needs of society," said Richt. "We explored questions like 'who's in charge of taking care of the poor and the elderly?' We felt like the church should do its share."

Also, Katharyn's brother and sister-in-law had previously adopted children from the Ukraine. Months later, Katharyn was in the Ukraine, a former republic of the Soviet Union, arranging the adoption of two children, classmates in the same orphanage. She spent 31 days there while Mark spent about eight days. When they returned in July, 1999, they had Zack and Anya, in tow.

"They have been a special blessing to all our family," said Katharyn.

Tracy Rocker, Associate Head Coach/ Defensive Line/Will Linebackers

Tracy Rocker, one of the state of Georgia's greatest college football players of all time, was named defensive line coach at Georgia in January of 2014. He was named the Associate Head Coach following the 2014 season.

In 2014, he helped lead the Bulldogs to a 10-3 mark and a No. 9 final ranking after Georgia topped #20 Louisville 37-14 in the Belk Bowl. Rocker came to UGA after three years as defensive line coach with the NFL's Tennessee Titans. Rocker is a former Auburn All-America defensive lineman, 1988 Outland and Lombardi Award winner, and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

Rocker coached three years with the Titans (2011, '12, '13). He joined the Titans after spending two seasons (2009-10) at Auburn as the defensive line coach.

A native of Atlanta, Ga., Rocker and his wife Lalitha have a son, Kumar (14).

Bryan McClendon, Assistant Head Coach/Wide Receivers/ Recruiting Coordinator

A former wide receiver for the Bulldogs, Bryan McClendon was named running backs coach in February of 2009 after serving two years (2007-08) as a graduate assistant coach with the Georgia offense. He was named Recruiting Coordinator in 2014. In February 2015, McClendon's coaching responsibility switched to wide receivers/ passing game coordinator.

Since joining the full time staff, Georgia has won 54 games and two SEC Eastern Division titles. He's been part of a staff that has led Georgia to record-setting offenses the last few years. The 2012 team set the mark for Most TDs in a Season with 72 while the 2014 club set the mark for Most Points in a Season (537) and Average Points in a Season (41.3), which were both SEC leading marks.

He was a four-year letterman with the Bulldogs (2002-05) and his senior class won 44 games--most by any class in Georgia history.

He is married to the former Amber Arnold of Atlanta, Ga. They have two children, Bryan (7) and Brooke (2).

Jeremy Pruitt, Defensive Coordinator/Secondary

Jeremy Pruitt, defensive coordinator at national champion Florida State in 2013, was named defensive coordinator at Georgia in January of 2014. He was greeted with the challenge of reconstructing the entire defensive staff, the first time an entire defensive staff had changed since 1964.

In his first season at UGA in 2014, the Bulldogs went 10-3 with a final national ranking of No. 9. The Bulldog defense posted the country's fourth-best turnover margin at +16. As defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach at FSU, Pruitt was part of a coaching staff that led the Seminoles to an undefeated season and 2013 BCS National Championship. The FSU defense ended the season ranked first nationally in scoring defense (12.1 ppg). He was a finalist for the Broyles Award, which goes to the nation's top assistant coach.

Pruitt was named FSU's defensive coordinator in December, 2012, after serving the previous three seasons (2010-12) as Alabama's defensive backfield coach. A former Alabama defensive back, Pruitt originally joined the Crimson Tide staff in 2007. Pruitt is married to the former Casey East. He has a son, Jayse (18).

Brian Schottenheimer, Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Veteran NFL coordinator and quarterbacks coach Brian Schottenheimer was named Offensive Coordinator and Quarterbacks Coach at Georgia in January of 2015.

Prior to joining the Georgia staff, Schottenheimer served as offensive coordinator with the St. Louis Rams from 2012-14 after holding the same position with the New York Jets from 2006-2011. He also held positions as quarterbacks coach with the San Diego Chargers (2002-05) and Washington Redskins (2001). Earlier in his career, he held assistant coaching positions with Southern California, Syracuse, Kansas City Chiefs and the Rams in his coaching debut under head coach Dick Vermeil. He coached for his father, Marty, with the Redskins and Chiefs.

He attended the University of Kansas in 1992 before transferring to the University of Florida where he played from 1994-96. He graduated from Florida in 1997 with a degree in exercise and sports science.

He and his wife, Gemmi, have a son, Sutton (10), and a daughter, Savannah (9).

Thomas Brown, Running Backs

Thomas Brown, who coached Heisman Trophy runner-up Melvin Gordon at Wisconsin in 2014, was named the running backs coach in February of 2015.

Brown guided Gordon and Corey Clement to 3,536 yards for the Badgers in 2014 to break the single-season FBS record for rushing yards by teammates.

Prior to joining the Wisconsin staff, Brown served as the running backs coach at Marshall in 2013 and at UT Chattanooga in 2012. He spent the 2011 season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at UGA.

A native of Tucker, Ga., Brown starred at Tucker High School before enrolling at Georgia and helping the Bulldogs to the 2005 Southeastern Conference championship. He finished his career with 2,646 career yards and led the Bulldogs in rushing in 2004 and 2005. For his career, Brown averaged 5.0 yards per carry and scored 25 touchdowns. He was elected by his teammates as the permanent offensive team captain in 2007.

Brown was selected in the sixth round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons and spent the 2009 season with the Cleveland Browns before retiring to pursue coaching opportunities.

Brown earned his bachelor's degree in speech communications from UGA. He and his wife, Jessica, have two children, Orlando (6) and Tyson (5).

Mike Ekeler, Inside Linebackers/ Defensive Special Teams Coordinator

Mike Ekeler was named Inside Linebackers Coach at Georgia in February of 2014. He also coordinates the defensive special teams. Ekeler came to Georgia after spending a season at Southern Cal.

He was a part of a 2014 Bulldog squad that won 10 games, including a 37-14 win over #20 Louisville in the Belk Bowl.

Ekeler had previously served as linebackers coach and co-defensive coordinator at Indiana (2011-12). A native of David City, Neb., he had served as linebackers coach at Nebraska for three seasons (2008-10) under head coach Bo Pelini. During his three years in Lincoln, the Cornhuskers won or shared the Big 12 Conference North Division title all three seasons.

He and his wife, Barbie, have a son, J.J. (12), and daughters Cameryn (11), Abigail (9), and Bella (5).

John Lilly, Tight Ends/Offensive Special Teams Coordinator

John Lilly was named tight ends coach at the University of Georgia in January of 2008, after serving as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Florida State from 1998-2007. He added the duty of Offensive Special Teams Coordinator in 2014.

During his seven seasons at UGA, the Bulldogs have won 64 games including four bowl victories and two SEC Eastern Division titles. He's been part of a staff that has led Georgia to record-setting offenses the last couple seasons. The 2012 team set the mark for Most TDs in a Season with 72 while the 2014 club set the mark for Most Points in a Season (537) and Average Points in a Season (41.3), which were both SEC leading marks.

Lilly, a native of Beckley, West Virginia, is married to the former Cheryl Brown of Tallahassee, Fla. They have two children, Allison Catherine (4) and Caleb Jackson (3).

Rob Sale, Offensive Line

Rob Sale was named offensive line coach at Georgia in January of 2015, after serving as the co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at McNeese State in 2014.

Sale joined the McNeese staff in February, 2012, as offensive line coach and was promoted to co-offensive coordinator in the summer of 2014. In 2014, the McNeese offense averaged 32.4 points per game, 396.5 total yards per game, 221.9 yards per game rushing and 174.6 yards per game passing.

Prior to serving on the McNeese staff, he held positions as strength and conditioning assistant coach and offensive analyst from 2007 to 2011 at the University of Alabama. While at Alabama, the Crimson Tide won two national titles in 2009 and 2011.

Sale is a native of Monroe, La., played high school football at Neville High School and college football at LSU where he was a three year starter in the offensive line. As a player at LSU, he played in 35 games with 25 starts, including all 13 games in his senior year of 2002 at right offensive guard. Sale earned his degree from LSU in 2003.

He and his wife Amanda have two sons, Tripp (3) and Briggs (1).

Kevin Sherrer, SAM Linebackers/ Star Position

Kevin Sherrer was named a defensive assistant at the University of Georgia in January of 2014. He arrived in Athens after spending one season as defensive coordinator at South Alabama.

He was part of a defensive unit that helped Georgia win 10 games in 2014 and hold #20 Louisville to just 14 points in the Belk Bowl win. Sherrer, who served as Director of Player Development at Alabama for three years prior to joining South Alabama, coached defensive backs for the Jaguars.

At Alabama, Sherrer's responsibilities included assisting Crimson Tide student-athletes with academics, community outreach and their personal lives. Sherrer was a tight end for the Crimson Tide from 1993-95. He is a 1996 graduate of Alabama with a degree in physical education, and he earned his master's degree in higher education administration from the school in 2000.

Mark Hocke
Director of Strength & Conditioning

Mark Hocke was named Director of Strength and Conditioning at Georgia in December of 2014. Hocke had spent the last six years at Alabama where he had served as the Co-Associate Football Strength and Conditioning Coach.

Hocke served at Alabama under Director of Strength and Conditioning Scott Cochran. During that time, Hocke was part of a program that has won three SEC Championships, three national championships and 72 games. While serving at Alabama, he helped developed several NFL draft choices including first rounder Julio Jones.

Prior to joining the Alabama staff, Hocke served five seasons as assistant football and head strength coach at his alma mater, Jesuit High School in New Orleans. He earned a bachelor's degree in Business from the University of New Orleans.

UGA, THE MASCOT LEGACY

Although the University of Georgia is now known as the home of Uga, the pure white English bulldog, several mascots led the Red and Black before Frank W. Seiler provided the current lineage beginning in 1956.

1890s

Trilby

1940s

Mr. Angel

1950s

Mike

The Goat, Feb. 22, 1892

Georgia's mascot for its first football game against Auburn, February 22, 1892 in Atlanta, Ga., was a goat. Old newspaper clippings indicate that the goat wore a black coat with red U.G. letters on each side. He also had on a hat with ribbons all down his high horns, and the Auburn fans yelled throughout the game "shoot the billy-goat."

Trilby, 1894

In 1894, Georgia's mascot was a solid white female bull terrier owned by a student, Charles H. Black, Sr., of Atlanta. Trilby, named after a novel by George Du Maurier, served as the campus pet and mascot for the Chi Phi fraternity.

Disputing stories speculate the origin of the Bulldog nickname, and the story of Trilby provides yet another opinion: "...every day Trilby took herself down to old Herty field with her master for football practice. She ran signals with the best of them and became an accustomed figure on the athletic field...One morning, Trilby failed to appear for her breakfast and after a frantic search she was finally discovered proudly washing the faces of her newborn family, 13 white puppies...Late one dusky fall afternoon, Trilby appeared for a grid workout and scampering after her came her 13 children, darting through players' legs, barking and pace. 'Well,' suggested one of the players, 'Trilby has brought us a name, Bulldogs.' ...Every time a game was played on Herty Field, the boys would floss Trilby and her 13 offerings up with red and black ribbons, and so attired they have gone down in history as perhaps the first 'sponsors' in southern football." —Ruth Stanton Cogill (Atlanta newspaper)

"After the rein of Trilby and her family, chaos developed in the mascot department at the university. Many games had several, depending on which alumnus got his dog to the game first." —AJC, Nov. 18, 1962

Mr. Angel, 1944-46

Mr. Angel, a brindle and white colored English Bulldog owned by Eastman,Ga., physician, Warren Coleman, filled a void during some of the war years.

There was no mascot roaming the sidelines and Coleman took Mr. Angel to games and stood with him on the sidelines. His picture on the field and with the Georgia cheerleaders appears in the 1945 and '46 UGA annual, the Pandora.

Butch, 1947-50

Butch was a brindled English bulldog owned by Mabry Smith of Warner Robins, Ga. He was spotted by students who were attending the 1946 Georgia-Georgia Tech game in Athens, and the canine appeared to be suited for the mascot position. Smith agreed to loan Butch to the University during the football season along with a female puppy named Tuffy. The female died of a heart attack following the Georgia-Kentucky game in 1948, but Butch continued to serve. Spending the off-season at Smith's home in Warner Robins, Butch was tragically shot in the summer of 1951 by a policeman after the dog escaped from his pen and was found roaming the streets. Butch is buried behind Smith's business along Watson Boulevard.

In 2004 plans for a marker honoring Butch in his hometown were put into motion by longtime Warner Robins resident Guy Fussell.

Mike, 1951-55

Butch was succeeded by Mike, another brindled English bulldog, owned by C. L. Fain. Mike lived in the field house on campus and died of natural canine causes in 1955. As his master's thesis, Gene Owens of Fort Worth, Texas, cast the bronze statue of Mike which is located at the entrance of Memorial Hall.

1956 - Uga Takes the Field

In the last 100 years of intercollegiate football, Georgia's Uga has established himself as the nation's most well-known mascot. The line of pure white English bulldogs, which epitomizes everything Georgia, has been owned by the Frank W. "Sonny" Seiler family of Savannah, Ga., since Uga I first graced the campus in 1956.

Through the years, Uga has been defined by his spiked collar, a symbol of the position which he holds. He was given his name, an abbreviation for the university, by William Young of Columbus, a law school classmate of Seiler. Each of the Uga mascots is awarded a varsity letter in the form of a plaque, identical to those presented to all Bulldog athletes who letter in their respective sports.

As determined and published by the Pittsburgh Press, the University of Georgia is the only major college that actually buries its mascots within the confines of the stadium. Ugas I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VII and VIII are buried in marble vaults near the main gate in the embankment of the South stands. Epitaphs to the dogs are inscribed in bronze, and before each home game, flowers are placed on their graves. The memorial plot attracts hundreds of fans and visitors each year.

For the past 20 years, Uga's jerseys have been custom-made at the beginning of each season from the same material used for the players' jerseys. Old jerseys are destroyed.

Uga's on-field home is a permanent air conditioned doghouse located next to the cheerleader's platform, providing comfort in the heat of August and September. The custom-made doghouse is a gift from the Bahamian Bulldog Club of Nassau, Bahamas, through the courtesy of Fred Hazlewood.

1960s

Uga I, 1956-66
"Hood's Ole Dan"
Record: 53-48-6

The current Uga line of solid white English bulldogs began with Uga I, Hood's Ole Dan, born Dec. 2, 1955, in Columbus. Uga I was given to Cecelia Seiler by a friend, Frank Heard of Columbus and appeared in his first game in the 1956 home opener. As recalled by Sonny Seiler, "...his original red jerseys were made by Cecelia. It was necessary to take up children's t-shirts to fit the dog in the right places. There is no telling how many of these jersey's he wore out. During the early games in Athens, especially the hot ones before he had a dog house, the large green hedges that surround Sanford Stadium afforded welcomed shade in the heat of battle. Unfortunately, the hedges constantly tore these jerseys and new ones had to be made." epitaph: Damn Good Dog

Uga II, 1966-72
"Ole Dan's Uga"
Record: 42-16-3

Uga I was succeeded by his son, Ole Dan's Uga at an impressive pregame ceremony at Homecoming, 1966. With the Georgia Redcoat Band lining the field, Uga II was led to the center of the field by Charles Seiler, son of Sonny and Cecelia. The student body erupted in a cheer that was picked up by the entire stadium, ''Damn Good Dog!''

Uga II had an impressive reign as Georgia participated in five bowl games and won two SEC championships. epitaph: Not Bad for A Dog

Uga III, 1972-80
"Seiler's Uga Three"
Record: 71-32-2

Born Oct. 9, 1972, Seiler's Uga III was present for Georgia football's finest moment as Herschel Walker took the Bulldogs to the 1980 national championship. He led Georgia to six bowl games in nine years and closed out his career in ultimate fashion winning the 1980 NCAA championship. Uga III retired on the 100th football game of his career, marking the season-opener of the 1981 season. He died just weeks later. epitaph: How 'Bout This Dawg

1980s

Uga IV, 1981-89
"Seiler's Uga Four"
Record: 77-27-4

Uga IV was perhaps the most active of all the Georgia mascots, standing as the only one to attend a bowl game every year of his service (1981-89). He took over for Uga III in the 1981 season opener and over the next nine seasons, led Georgia to a record of 77-27-4. The highlight of his career was his personal appearance at the Heisman Trophy Banquet with Herschel Walker in New York on December 9, 1982. Uga IV was escorted through thebanquet hall by the president of the Downtown Athletic Club, and was earlier photographed with Herschel by photographers from across the country. The proud Bulldog donned his game jersey for the outing and added the formal touch of a collar and black tie. Uga IV was the first mascot invited to the Heisman Banquet.Declared ''Dog of the Decade'' by Vince Dooley in 1991, Uga IV was posthumously awarded the highest honor available to University of Georgia mascots — the Georgia varsity letter. epitaph: The Dog of the Decade

Otto, 1986
"The Substitute"
Record: 3-1

Although Otto was not pure white like his father, he was called upon to fill in for his younger brother, Uga IV, who injured ligaments in his left hind knee when jumping off a hotel bed before the Vanderbilt contest. In four games during the 1986 season, Otto led the team to a 3-1 record and also co-mascotted (along with Uga IV), a victory over instate rival Georgia Tech. After winning his first two games, fans cheered, "2-and-0 with Otto!" Dooley, serving as head coach during Otto's brief tenure, favored the substitute the most. "I have always had a great affection for those who came off the bench and performed, and he did that and had a great time," Dooley said. Otto is buried in the Seiler's backyard.

1990s

Uga V, 1990-99
"UGA IV's Magillicuddy II"
Record: 65-39-1

In the first game of 1990, Uga V officially began his reign as the Georgia mascot taking over from his father Uga IV, who passed away at his home in Savannah on Feb. 26, 1990. Uga V was the last pup sired by Uga IV and was born on March 6, 1990.

Named in honor of one of the greatest Bulldogs, Dan Magill, former Assistant Athletic Director for Public Relations and longtime tennis coach and sports information director. Surprisingly, the Seiler family became aware that Uga IV's mate was expecting only 10 days before the litter was due. This notice came a week after Uga IV had passed away at his home in Savannah from kidney failure. There were only three pups in the litter and the last one born on March 6 was the only solid white male.

Uga V had been perhaps the most well known of all the Bulldog mascots highlighted by his appearance on the cover of the April 28, 1997, Sports Illustrated which declared him the nation's best college mascot. Rocketed to stardom, he also appeared in Clint Eastwood's "Midnight In The Garden Of Good And Evil" — filmed in his hometown of Savannah, Ga. Uga V also presided over Georgia's most successful collective sporting effort in department history as the Bulldogs claimed four NCAA team titles during the 1998-99 season — women's swimming and diving, women's gymnastics, men's tennis and men's golf — and placed second in the Directors' Cup race. He died on Nov. 22, 1999, just over two months after his retirement. epitaph: "Nation's Best College Mascot"—*Sports Illustrated

Uga VI, 1999-2008
"Uga V's Whatchagot Loran"
Record: 87-27

In 2007, Uga VI became the winningest mascot in school history and owned a record of 87-27. The fall of 2008 would have been his 10th season after Uga VI reigned over more games than any other mascot with 114. He died on June 27, 2008. In his last game, the Bulldogs defeated Hawai'i 41-10 in the Allstate Sugar Bowl in New Orleans on Jan. 1, 2008. Georgia finished the season ranked second in the AP poll.

The pregame passing of the bone ceremony from Uga V to his heftier and friskier son, Whatchagot Loran, took place at the 1999 Georgia-South Carolina contest. Only a year old at his coronation, Uga VI stands as the biggest of all the Uga mascots weighing in at 65 pounds — 20 pounds heavier than his father.

His first season climaxed in a magnificent come from behind victory over Purdue at the Outback Bowl in Tampa. The comeback from a 25-point deficit marked an unprecedented feat in Georgia annals and the largest comeback in collegiate bowl history.

The 2000 season ended in Hawaii, but due to the distance and a quarantine rule, Uga VI missed the O'ahu Bowl, marking the first time the Georgia mascot had missed the postseason game since the 1969 Sun Bowl.

Alongside first-year head coach Mark Richt, Uga VI saw his third consecutive 8-4 season, which included a 26-24 win at then-No. 6 Tennessee for the Bulldogs' first win in Knoxville since 1980.

Uga VI and Georgia experienced their best season in two decades as the 2002 Bulldogs won a record 13 games (to only one loss), and topped Arkansas to win the program's first league title since 1982. And Uga VI roamed the sidelines as the Bulldogs defeated Florida State in the 2003 Nokia Sugar Bowl, 26-13.

2000s

The 2006 season marked the 50th anniversary of the Uga legacy of mascots at UGA. Georgia returned to Atlanta, Ga. to defeat Virginia Tech in the Chick-fil-A Bowl on December 30, 2006 to end the season with a 9-4 record.

In 2007, Uga VI passed Uga IV (77-27-4) for the most wins of any bulldog in school history.

Uga VII, 2008-2009
"Loran's Best"
Record: 16-7

The seventh in the Uga line of Georgia mascots was introduced to the Georgia people on Aug. 30, 2008, during pre-game ceremonies of the Bulldogs' season opener against Georgia Southern.

"Loran's Best" officially became "Uga VII," when he was introduced for the first time to the Sanford Stadium crowd prior to kick-off of the Georgia vs. Georgia Southern game. He was escorted onto the field by members of the Frank W. "Sonny" Seiler family of Savannah who have owned the continuous line of mascots since Uga I took up the mantle in 1956.

Uga VII passed away unexpectedly on Nov. 19 of heart-related causes. It was the Thursday before the final home game of the 2009 season and the Bulldogs did not have a live mascot at the game. Instead, a wreath was placed on UGA VII's doghouse, and the players wore a special UGA VII decal on their helmets to remember him. "Russ," the five-year-old half brother of Uga VII, served as the Bulldog mascot for the Georgia Tech game in Atlanta and helped his squad to a 30-24 win. He was the first substitute mascot since "Otto" in 1986. "Russ" also served as the mascot in the 2009 bowl game. epitaph: Gone Too Soon

Uga VIII, 2010
"Big Bad Bruce"
Record: 4-2

Born Sept. 12, 2009 in Savannah, Ga., Uga VIII is the grandson of Uga VI. He carries on the tradition of more than 60 years of all-white bulldogs bred by Frank "Sonny" Seiler and family.

2013

Uga VIII was named in honor of Dr. Bruce Hollett from the University's School of Veterinary Medicine. Dr. Hollett has been a long time caregiver for the famed line of English bulldogs. UGA VIII served six games in the 2010 season before he became ill and missed the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. He passed away with lymphoma on February 4, 2011. epitaph: He Never Had A Chance

Uga IX, 2012-Present
"Russ", 2009-2012 Record 16-9
Total Current Record: 44-19

Uga IX, formerly "Russ," the half-brother of Uga VII, served as interim Bulldog mascot for a total of 25 games. He worked nine games during the 2009 and 2010 seasons after Uga VII and VIII passed away. He roamed the sidelines at all 14 games during the 2011 season. He then served for two wins at the beginning of the 2012 season before being promoted as Uga IX prior to the Florida Atlantic game on Sept. 15, 2012. His years as mascot have included the 2011 SEC Eastern Division championship, two road wins at Georgia Tech and a victory over Texas A&M in the 2009 Independence Bowl. He completed 2012 with a 12-2 record and a win over Nebraska in the Capital One Bowl. In 2013, he finished with an 8-5 record before the Bulldogs completed the 2014 season with a 10-3 mark, including a victory over #20 Louisville in the Belk Bowl.
